Strike Situation Unchanged

Only a Few Minor Disturbances

THE MILL OFFICIALS

CROWD IN FRONT OF I. W. W. HEADQUARTERS

Say That They Will Not Recognize the I. W. W.

The strike situation in this city remains about the same.

There was considerable excitement this forenoon but the strikers, as a whole, have been quite orderly.

There was a semi-parade early this morning and it went into Belvidere. The strikers were looking for A. G. Cunnock's house and they had stones in their pockets. Mr. Cunnock is treasurer of the Appleton mills. One arrest followed.

There was nothing doing at the mill gates this morning or at the noon hour. Big crowds gathered there and the police had very little to do. The crowds were very orderly.

At a meeting held today reports of delegates appointed yesterday to submit the demands of the I. W. W. to the mill agents were received and accepted. The delegates reported that the mill officials said they would not treat with the I. W. W.. Other committees were sent to the mills this afternoon.

At a meeting of the Loomfixers' association held this forenoon it was announced that John Golden, president of the Textile Workers of America, would arrive in Lowell tomorrow morning.

More operatives went out on strike today from the mills of the Bigelow Carpet Company in Market street and windows were broken in those mills this morning by stones thrown from the street.

It was reported this forenoon that the I. W. W. had been requested to vacate its headquarters in the Mansur block, corner of Central and Market streets.

The strikers voted at their meeting this morning not to parade this afternoon. A parade had been decided upon but it was given up.

The foreigner who assaulted a police officer in Davidson street last evening was fined $40 in police court today.

There was some excitement in Middle street this forenoon said to be due to a clash between delegates from the I. W. W. and members of the A. F. of L.

John Golden Coming

The Loomfixers' association held a meeting this forenoon at their headquarters in the Rigel's building and initiated 25 new members. Conditions having to do with the strike and lockout were discussed quite freely but no action was taken. It was stated that John Golden of the Textile Workers of America, would arrive here tomorrow forenoon and the loomfixers will take no action until they have consulted with Mr. Golden. The loomfixers have nothing in common with the I. W. W.

Strikers Were Misled

The strikers threw a little scare into Belvidere this morning and but for the presence of mind of a man accosted by the strikers there is no telling just what would have been the nature of the demonstration. It seems that the strikers started for the Waterhead mills in Lawrence street, but they did not reach there and made a somewhat circuitous route embracing a considerable portion of Belvidere.

The procession was quite a pretentious one and was lead by a stranger whose name is unknown. It was well understood, however, that the procession was composed of strikers and they were looking for the residence of Treas. A. G. Cunnock of the Appleton mills. They were almost directly opposite Mr. Cunnock's house when they accosted a young man and asked where the house was. The young man was a quick thinker and, to avoid what he thought portended trouble, indulged in a fib and said: "Just over the hill, first street to the right," and away they went. So well did the little ruse work that Mr. Cunnock, speaking later of the conduct of the strikers, said: "They were very orderly and did not create any disturbance whatever, at least not in the vicinity of my house." Mr. Cunnock did not know that the strikers had inquired as to the location of his house.

The strikers also inquired for Frederick A. Flatcher's house. Mr. Flather is treasurer of the Boott mills and lives in Mansur street. They did not create any disturbance at Mr. Flather's house and it looked as if the strikers were just simply curious to know where the two treasurers lived.

Sign on the Door

When Michael Stamkin opened the the door to his home in Winter street this morning he found that a red cross had been painted on the outside of the door and thereby hangs a tale.

Adam Nasutoviez and Alex Kansinski were arrested last night by Sergt. Ryan and Officers O'Keefe and Sheridan on a warrant charging them with assault and battery on Michael Stamkin, the man on whose door the red cross was painted.

Stamkin is employed at the Waterhead mills in Lawrence street and refused to go out last Tuesday when others, including Nasutoviez and Kansinski, went out on strike. On Tuesday, at noon, Stamkin was knocked down, pummelled and kicked by three men and Nasutoviez and Kansinski, he alleges, were two of the men who assaulted him.

Nasutoviez and Kansinski were arraigned in police court this forenoon and their cases were continued to tomorrow morning. The two men are out on bail.

Stamkin told the police that he was well satisfied with his work and said he would remain at work as long as the mill remains open. "I have a wife and child," he said, "and I cannot afford to loaf and I want to be protected at my work and in the street. I am not afraid of them, but I do not want to have any trouble if I can help it."

They Carried Stones

But however peaceful may have been their motives some of them carried stones and dropped them upon the arrival of the police who had been telephoned for presumably by the young man who sent the strikers over the hill to look for Mr. Cunnock's house. The officers went out in the auto patrol and it might be said in passing that it is just such a time as this that proves the worth and necessity of an auto patrol for the police department.

The police came upon the strikers on the Rogers street bridge and it was then and there that the strikers dropped the stones from their pockets. One of their number, Jafer Hijselm,

OFFICERS BEATEN

Jail Sentences and Fines for the Accused Men

Patrolmen Michael J. Lennon and William H. Killoy had narrow escapes from being seriously injured in East Merrimack street about 5.30 o'clock last night while they were fighting against a crowd of riotous persons. The battle was a hot one for the time it lasted. The fracas attracted hundreds of people to the scene as well as police officers and the latter were the ones who prevented more serious trouble.

The patrolmen were passing through East Merrimack street in the vicinity of Davidson street when they saw a number of people obstructing the street. They ordered them to move on but they refused to do so. Then two were placed under arrest. The officers started for the patrol box but others who were in the crowd attacked the officers and the two men made their escape.

The battle proved to be a hot one and while Patrolmen Lennon and Killoy fought hard they did not draw a gun. Patrolman Killoy was struck over the head with a club which almost rendered him unconscious. Patrolman Lennon was knocked down and kicked and his face and body show bruises as a result of the trouble.

The manslaughter complaint was placed on file and the defendant was tried on four counts, namely, recklessly operating an automobile, operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, going away without stopping after injuring Mrs. Kittredge, going away without stopping after damaging the property of Albert Zeep. He was found guilty on all charges except that alleging intoxication. It is understood that sentence will not be imposed before the June term of the court.

COTTON MILLS STRIKE

who said he was a Turk and lived in Gorham street, was seen to throw a stone. Officer Frank Fox caught him in the act and placed him under arrest. At the police station the stone thrower was booked for assault on an unknown person.

Trouble in Middle Street

"Big gang raise h—— in Middle street," said a little old man who blew into the police station waving a newspaper this forenoon. He thought, perhaps, that because he was so short of stature that it was necessary for him to wave the paper in order to be recognized. "Send police quick," he said, and away he went with a bunch of reporters and photographers at his heels and, sure enough, there was something doing in Middle street. The street was packed from Central street to the Cotton Weavers' hall and men and women were talking in divers tongues of something that happened up stairs. Just then the officers appeared on the scene and dispersed the crowd some of whom mumbled threatening words while others cheered.

No arrests were made and the crowd moved on in compliance with the order of the police. A fellow on the sidewalk told one of the officers that representatives of the I. W. W. had called at the hall for the purpose of addressing the crowd there and were refused admittance. They tried, he said, to push in the door and were met by men with clubs and one of the visitors was pushed down the rather steep stairs leading to the hall.

Statement By the Mayor

Mayor O'Donnell when asked for a statement relative to the strike by a reporter of The Sun today said:

"I have not taken any official action on the strike and do not intend to until conditions warrant such action. At the present time the matter appears to be one between the mill authorities and the employes and as long as it does not interfere in any way with the rights of others there is no need for any action on my part. I have kept close watch on the conditions and incidents that have followed the closing of the mills. There is no apparent spirit of malice or lawlessness abroad. Crowds congregate in the streets and at the mill gates, a great majority of them drawn there simply through idle curiosity to see what is going to happen. The younger element is there in a spirit of mischief, perhaps. Occasionally there has been an outbreak such as that which occurred in Davidson street yesterday. In all such cases the police have acted promptly and effectively. I have instructed the police to meet the situation coolly and conservatively; to see that the law is obeyed but to guard against over-stepping their authority."

Report of Delegates

At today's meeting in the I. W. W. hall the delegates named yesterday to present the demands to the mill officials made their reports to the general strike committee. The meeting was presided over by William Trautman. He first called for the secretary's report of the last meeting. The report was read and accepted. Reports were then given by the representatives of the thirteen nationalities in the strike. Each reported progress and all said that their people would remain in the strike. It was announced that the Armenians and the Turks met and organized last night.

The reports of the committees that went to the mill officials yesterday were submitted. In most cases the speakers said that the mill men were willing to meet committees of strikers from their mills but that they would not do business with the I. W. W. One of the delegates reported that when he presented the demands to the agent of the Appleton mills, the latter cried, and said that he was sorry. The speaker then said, "He is not sorry for us but sorry because the money is not coming into his pocket." He was loudly applauded.

The other committee said that they were politely received and that they made arrangements to meet the officials again today. The reports were cheered and all were accepted by the general committee.

It was announced by several of the delegates that they want to secure separate halls to hold their meetings. The committee voted them the privilege to engage halls, but instructed them to make reports to headquarters.

It was decided that the number of members on the committees named yesterday be reduced from 5 to 3, and to be composed of only employes of the mills that they will visit. The time announced for the latter committees to meet was three o'clock. They met at headquarters and then went to the mills. Chairman Trautman instructed them to tell the mill officials that they were representatives of the strikers of the mill and that they did not come as delegates from the I. W. W.

The reports of the committees will be heard at the meeting of the general committee tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The Greeks Met

The Greek strikers, in answer to the ringing of the bell on the Greek church at 10:30 today went to the school hall and at 12 o'clock a large meeting was held. Earlier in the morning there was a bulletin posted in the drug store at the corner of Market and Suffolk streets to the effect that the meeting would be held at 12 o'clock. Dr. Demopoulos, the leader of the Greek strikers, first spoke of the circulars that he had printed and instructed his assistants to distribute them among the number. 1500 of these were printed and some were distributed last night. A translation of the pamphlet is as follows:

To the Greek Strikers:

I did not advise you to strike. You went on strike out of your own free will first, and then you came and asked my advice and leadership.

Since you are on strike and have appointed me your leader, I deem it my right and duty to give you a warning and advice that as long as you went on strike, you owe it to yourselves to stand loyal by it as long as it lasts and as long as the other nationalities are on strike, and only stop striking when all together stop.

If you don't stand loyal with the rest of your brothers, Americans, English, French, Belgians, Portuguese, Polanders, if you break the strike, all the others will think of us as dishonorable people.

I am telling you this because I noticed today that some resentfulness (combat feelings) commenced to sow thorns among you, so as to cause you to divide in opinion and thus break the strike and win for us the contempt of the other nationalities.

These things were done once upon a time. Let us stop their now. Let us try to correct the injustice done to us by others and win the esteem and respect of all. Don't forget! Stand loyal with the strike as long as it lasts. Be peaceful and avoid, by all means, the least disturbance, and victory, respect and the estimation of the public will be ours.

(Signed)

George A. Demopoulos,

The doctor reported to his people the reports of the committees made at this morning's meeting of the strike committee. He said that the delegates reported that they were treated "politely" in all but one mill. He said that during the afternoon he will have the strikers of the different mills visit him at his office. Each mill will be given one hour. By this plan he expects to find how many are out in each mill. He will also make a list of the single and married people and find out the circumstances of each striker. He said to The Sun that the reason he was doing this was to prepare for what may come. He says that if the strike is prolonged he will solicit funds from other Greek communities and distribute the money according to the circumstances. He again repeated his instructions to the strikers to keep out of parades and other demonstrations.

He told them to be careful and not to take the advice of some of the men who are telling them to go back to the mills and to take part in the disturbances. At the conclusion of his remarks he asked if they still had confidence in him and if they would continue to obey his orders. They said they would and gave him three hearty cheers.

At the Carpet

It was reported that employes in several of the departments in the Bigelow Carpet came out today. Most of these, it is said, are sympathizers, who have members of their families on strike in other mills. This morning as a result of throwing stones several windows in the mill were broken. Two of the broken windows are on the side near the police station, one being on the second floor, in the counting room of the axminster department.

No Parade Today

There was no large street parade through the streets today, though during the morning hours some of the strikers met and marched through the streets cheering. The afternoon procession, however, did not materialize, and most of the strikers as well as the "lock outs" met either in the hall or on the corners, but their stay on the corners in the down town districts was rather brief, as the police were instructed not to allow them to congregate.

"Lockout" Talks

In conversation with an employe of the Waterhead mill, this morning, the writer asked him if he was on strike. He said: "Well, you may call it so, though I did not come out as a striker. I, as well as many others, went to the factory to go to work, but the strike pickeners got there before us. When we saw that they were there at the entrance and that it would be impossible to get by them we turned around and have remained away from there since. I want to work and was perfectly satisfied with the pay I was getting, but I also think considerable of my life. I suppose we will have to remain away until the strike is over."

Boyd Not There

James Boyd, who has presided at most of the meetings of the strike committee was not at this morning's meeting. It was said that he and William Haywood left the city last night, but that both were expected to return today.

Asked to Vacate

Owing to the many complaints from tenants in the Mansur block where the strikers have their headquarters the representative of the Nesmith estate, which includes the Mansur block, has requested the strikers to vacate the hall.

Letter from Morrison I. Swift

The following letter from Mr. Morrison I. Swift is received and we gladly publish it as showing his view of the present industrial situation:

To the Editor of The Sun:

Two points in your editorial last night on the mill strike deserve comment. You state that "preparations to inaugurate the turbulent methods adopted in Lawrence" in part have caused the general shut-down of the cotton mills. This is a mistake. The strikers are averse to turbulence and so are the leaders. The Lawrence victory in the presence of the militia proved that success can be gained by simply waiting.

At the same time the attitude of the city authorities here is very different from that which the Lawrence authorities took. The strikers are not being treated as if they were a body of dangerous wild beasts, but as if they were rational men and women. If this policy is continued there will be a kindly feeling in the strikers toward the city, which is the best guarantee of peace.

You say, in closing your editorial, "There is a large number of people who did not strike (in Lowell) and who did not approve of the strike. They have to suffer the loss of work with the others, etc." Very much the same argument was used and made much of at Lawrence. The other side of this statement is that all these people who are tepid and do not want to help the strike, enjoy the benefits when the strike wins, and are very glad to accept them. None of these persons refuses the raise of wages that the more enthusiastic spirits gained for them. They thoroughly approve of getting higher pay, and if, instead of standing aloof, they would loyally cooperate with the rest, it would be much easier to secure this higher pay. The I. W. W. is a great boon to the workers, in that it seeks to amalgamate them all into one union so that the indifferent and timid workers will not hinder improvement of conditions.

The price of living has gone up; nearly every necessity of life has become dearer; how are these mill hands to subsist on the same level of life without a substantial advance of pay? If the mill owners should receive less in profits (which is doubtful, since they can raise the price of their product), would it mean anything except that they would have to dispense with a few luxuries which they do not need? All citizens should see the justice of their doing so in order that the operatives may be able to buy the absolutely necessary things of life.

Morrison I. Swift,

Lowell, March 27.

STRIKE INCIDENTS

Capt. "Jim" Brosnan of the police department, looking resplendent in his new uniform, stood at the corner of Moody and Suffolk streets yesterday morning about 6.50 o'clock when along came a procession of strikers in the wake of which were two foreigners, each decorated with the "Don't be etc." sign and proceeding along under an evidently heavy accumulation of liquid enthusiasm. As they passed the genial captain one of them removed his cap and cried out in broken English, "Free cheer for Ireland."

Two children entered one of the primary schools yesterday wearing the badges of the strikers. The teacher saw them coming and meeting them at the door said: "Take off those badges. There's no strike here. Everybody is working at this school." The children removed the badges and the incident was closed.

Patrolmen Flanagan, Clark and Moore have been ordered to permanent duty at the corner of East Merrimack and Davidson streets until further orders. They took their stations this noon and all was quiet in that neighborhood.

"Dutchy" McDonald came down from his home in Merrimack, N. H., yesterday brimming over with excitement. "Gee," said Dutchy, "I guess this strike fever has gone through the country. When I went home last night I found that the kids in the village school, including my own, had gone on strike because they didn't like the new teacher."

HICHBORN A SUICIDE

Son of the Late Rear Admiral Shot Himself

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Philip S. Hichborn, a young lawyer and son of the late Rear-Admiral Hichborn, killed himself last night from despondency and humiliation over the elopement more than a year ago of his wife, Eleanor Hoyt Hichborn, with Horace L. Wylie, a prominent Washington attorney. He shot himself in the head with an automatic army revolver and died almost instantly.

Hichborn went to the home of his sister, Mrs. Paul S. Pearsall for dinner. The family was out and shortly after his arrival servants heard a shot in his room. The door was broken in and he was found dead. On a table he had left a sealed note.

A person who professed to have seen the note said part of its text was:

"I am not to blame for this, I think I have lost my mind."

The remainder, which was brief, was said to be devoted to mention of his little boy.

Suicide adds one more chapter to a domestic tragedy which shocked the most exclusive society in Washington and brought sorrow and shame to the homes of some of the capital's most prominent families.

The first hint that the public had that all was not well in the Hichborn family occurred in December, 1910, when Mrs. Hichborn and Wylie disappeared at the same time. They were reported traveling under the names of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wise on the Nile and in France. Later they returned and reconciliation in their respective families was attempted without success. Both again disappeared last November and are now thought to be in France. Wylie had a wife and four children and Mrs. Hichborn a three-year-old boy.

ANNUAL RECEPTION

Given by Miss Ockington Last Night

Miss Ockington's annual reception was held last night and was largely attended. The affair was quite interesting and the program rendered was a most charming one.

The opening march was led by Master John Kelman and Miss Gertrude Donoghue, aged four years, followed by Master Robert Friend and Miss Elizabeth Humphrey.

The young people who took part in the fancy dances were as follows:

The "Irish Lilt," Master Donald Cameron, Misses Beryl Blair and Esther Whitman; Master Donald Adams, Misses Mary Cameron and Gladys Long; Master Ainsworth Isherwood, Misses Helen Rule and Doris Howard; Master Raymond Wilde, Misses Margaret Clare and Elizabeth Chadbourne; Master Alan Adams, Misses Helen Patten and Isabel Whitman.

Classic dance, "The Water Nymph," Miss Esther Mulgrave.

Spanish Gipsy, "La Cachuca," Misses Dorothy Bean, Linda Weinbeck, Mildred Tinker and Muriel Crompton.

Highland Fling, Misses Mildred Bean and Celia Crowe.

The music was by the American orchestra, Emil J. Borjes directing. The platform was decorated with palms and flowers.

During the latter half of the evening the older pupils and their friends enjoyed an attractive program of dances. Mr. Jesse Brothart Gill was manager, and the following men were aids: Messrs. Frank Ogden, George Crompton, Charles Lincoln Barton, Scott Carpenter, Karl Sheppard Lunan, James John Sheehan, Guy Franklin MacLeod, Erwin Lee Smith, Wilfrid Thomas Rouiger, Edward Banks Sheridan.

Girls

Read About These Three Girls. How Sick They Were and How Their Health Was Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Appleton, Wis.—"I take pleasure in writing you an account of my sickness. I told a friend of mine how I felt and she said I had female trouble and advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she had taken it herself for the same trouble with wonderful results. I had been sickly for two years and overworked myself, and had such bad feelings every month that I could hardly walk for pain. I was very nervous and easily tired out and could not sleep nights. I had dizzy spells, and pimples came on my face. But I have taken your Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored my health. I think it is the best medicine in existence."—Miss CECILIA M. BAUER, 1161 Lawrence St., Appleton, Wis.

A SCHOOL TEACHER'S GRATITUDE:

Geneva, Iowa.—"I have been teaching school for some years and I have neglected my health because I was too busy with my work to attend to myself properly. I suffered greatly every month and was on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

"I wrote to you about my condition and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Purifier as you recommended. These remedies have done wonders for me and I can highly and widely recommend them to every suffering woman."—Miss MINNIE SHAVER, R. F. D. No. 1, Geneva, Iowa, c/o Sam Erickson.

A COLORADO GIRL'S CASE:

Montrose, Col.—"I was troubled very much with irregular periods. Sometimes two months would elapse. I suffered severe headache, was weak and nervous, could eat scarcely anything.

"I took both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and the result was wonderful. I feel like another person.

"I think your remedies are the best on earth and cannot express my thankfulness to you for what they have done to me. I help my neighbors when they are sick, and I shall always recommend your medicines."—Miss ELLA MCCANDLESS, Montrose, Col.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that a medicine that did so much for these girls will benefit any other girl who is suffering with the same troubles?

Does it not seem the only sensible thing to give such a medicine at least a trial? You may be sure that it can do you no harm, and there are lots of proof that it will do you much good.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

All these testimonials are guaranteed genuine and truthful. The original of each came to us entirely unsolicited. They are sincere expressions of gratitude for actual benefits received from the medicine.

MURDER PREVENTED

Would-be Slayer Was Knocked Down by Convict

BOSTON, March 28.—A convict became a life-saver at the Charlestown state prison yesterday, when he grappled with an infuriated inmate who had knocked an instructor of the clothing department to the floor insensible, and, with an ironing board poised high in the air, was about to deliver what he afterward boasted would have been "the finishing touch."

The attack came without warning. Bedlam reigned among the 70 convicts in the room when they heard the sound of blows, the cries of the assailed man, and saw the latter, who is Martin Leftovitch, one of the two instructors in the department, fall insensible to the floor.

Not satisfied with the result of his blows, the assailant raised his weapon high over his head.

Just as he was about to crash it down on the skull of the helpless instructor, a fellow convict made a flying leap, caught him by the arms, and the two rolled upon the floor.

An officer who was on duty in the room took a hand in the melee, and the board wielder was soon quieted.

Leftovitch, upon examination by Drs. Morris and MacLaughlin, was found to be suffering from severe wounds of the scalp and face.

A blow on the side of the face had driven his teeth through the cheek. There was also a gash on his arm received in an attempt to ward off the attack.

He was taken to his home at 13 Allen street, West End, in an automobile, and last night his condition was said to be critical.

The man who made the attack is now in confinement under surveillance. He will be examined as to his sanity, as officers at the prison have noted strange actions on his part recently.

For several days Leftovitch experienced difficulty with the man, who received instructions as to his labor in a surly manner. His term of imprisonment would soon have expired, and this is one of the reasons that makes his act inexplicable to the prison authorities.

Warden Bridges stated last night that he could not make public at this time the names of the prisoner who made the attack and of the prisoner who saved the instructor.

A reward in the shape of a shortened sentence, if not a pardon itself, will probably be given the convict who came to the rescue. When questioned on this point, Warden Bridges stated that he was not in a position to express himself as to the recognition that might be given the brave convict.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT

Lashed Opponents in a Stirring Speech

CHICAGO, March 28.—Col. Roosevelt's most stinging campaign speech thus far was delivered here last night. He lashed his opponents and charged some of them with using fraud and trickery to defeat him.

Col. Roosevelt said it was a fighting speech. It was delivered before a throng which packed the auditorium and cheered him enthusiastically. The primaries in New York yesterday furnished the text for his speech and he cited a number of instances in which he said his opponents resorted to wrong practices to defeat him. He expressed belief that in the great majority of districts of the country the people were with him and that the opposition was trying to defeat him by methods which he characterized as "infamous."

Part of Col. Roosevelt's speech was devoted to "big B's." He opposed "our present policy of chaos" and gave his own ideas of the methods which should be pursued to insure strict regulation of large corporations.

Chicago gave the former president a lively welcome. Crowds cheered him at the station when he arrived and whenever he appeared during the nine hours of his stay here.

The auditorium was large enough to hold only a part of those who sought admission. Though two other meetings were held many persons who wished to hear Col. Roosevelt were unable to do so.

STRUCK BY A CAR

Automobile Was Badly Damaged

An automobile owned and operated by William Murphy, the taxi-cab man, crashed into an outward bound electric car of the Bay State Street Railway Co., near the corner of John and Merrimack streets about 10:30 o'clock last night. Mr. Murphy and his companion, John McNally, were thrown out, Murphy falling in the glass from the front of the car and receiving several cuts on the right cheek, chin and forehead. He was slightly stunned when picked up and his face covered with blood, so he was taken into Riker-Jaynes' drug store and his injuries were attended to there. McNally escaped injury with the exception of a few slight bruises on his face and a bad shaking up.

The machine was a four cylinder Stevens-Duryea and was badly damaged about the radiator, front wheels and engine. It was towed to one of the local garages.

The motorman on the car was Philip O'Brien and Thomas Holden was the conductor.

FINED FOR ASSAULT

Man Was Found Guilty of Striking Another

Charles Cross was arraigned before Judge John J. Pickman in police court this morning on a complaint charging him with assault and battery on Patrick F. Bolton. The affair took place in a lodging house in Lee street last Saturday night.

Mr. Bolton stated that Cross entered his room and held him down and then punched him. He claimed that the defendant administered three very severe punches.

Little Johnnie Curry, corroborated the testimony offered by the complainant.

The defendant said that he pushed Mr. Bolton but that it was in order to get him out of the room.

The court found the man guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $12.

Fine of $40 Imposed

Frank H. Mears was charged with neglecting his wife. He denied the allegation but after the court had heard the case the man was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $40, the money to be paid to his wife. According to the testimony offered the couple do not live together. There are two children which the woman is caring for and she said that he had not given her a cent since January. She told the court that she had no faith in the man and wanted him sent to jail. It was also brought out that there is a libel for divorce pending at the present time.

Case Continued

The case of Abraham Lester, charged with adultery, was continued until Saturday morning.

Drunken Offenders

Elizabeth Riley was charged with being drunk but inasmuch as she entered a plea of not guilty the case was continued until Friday.

The case of Catherine Cassidy was continued until tomorrow morning for sentence. There were 13 first offenders who were fined $2 each and several simple drunks were released before the opening of court.

John Ryan, Patrick Daly, Richard F. Sullivan, Albert Anderson and John P. Fogarty were each fined $6.

THE BRITISH COAL STRIKE

Premier Asquith has failed to settle the coal strike. The minimum wage bill has, therefore, been carried and is now in force. The industrial paralysis all over England is the worst the country has ever experienced. The miners are beginning to return to work; and the points at issue have been reduced to almost nothing. Yet the miners delight at this display of power to cripple the industries of the country and refuse to go to work. The whole situation emphasizes the necessity of seizing the mines and having them run under government control. The crisis has united the two great political parties in the work of urging a settlement. In spite of the gravity of the crisis the government refused to allow any minimum wage to be specified in the bill as in England it has always been held as absurd to fix wages by law. Furthermore if such a thing were done in one case it would have to be done in another. Premier Asquith has made a strenuous effort to settle the strike, and nothing but asinine obstinacy resulted in the defeat of his good offices in that direction. The miners will find that hereafter their powers may be greatly restricted as the fate of the entire nation cannot be left in the hands of an organization so reckless of the public interests.

THE STRIKE OUTLOOK

With a few weeks of idleness thousands of the operatives will be destitute and then will come the sad feature of the situation. The operatives and their families will suffer if relief be not provided. The average family dependent upon the wages earned in the mills lives only from hand to mouth and seldom is provided for more than a week at a time. If the grocer refuses as needs he must to give credit during the strike, then the family without money will be in want. The grocer, like the market man, has to pay his own bills and cannot afford to give much credit, especially where the chances of payment are not the best. The strike will have many features common to all strikes; but it is gratifying to know that thus far those out of work have been quite orderly in their parades and their public demonstrations. It is to be hoped that this will continue and that there will be no excuse for any extra police much less for the militia. We do not want the reputation for disturbance established by Lawrence.

The demands of the strikers have been submitted to the agents, and a conference may bring about a mutual understanding.

NEEDLESS JUNKET PLANNED

The proposition to appropriate $35,000 to send eleven members of the legislature to Europe for the purpose of investigating industrial conditions, wages and hours of labor, is one that would serve no useful purpose, although it would give the members of the delegation a very delightful tour. Similar investigating bodies have secured information of this kind that proved of very little use. In 1910 a special commission appointed by the legislature investigated the cost of living and published the result of their labors and deductions in a large volume which very few people took the trouble to read. Moreover the general public did not accept its conclusions as genuine or reliable. This proposition to investigate the conditions, wages and hours of labor is one that if carried out would accomplish nothing beyond affording the delegation an opportunity to see how the toilers fare in the old world.

THE PACKERS SET FREE

"Not guilty" is the verdict in behalf of the ten Chicago packers. Nobody supposed there was any danger of a conviction. The whole prosecution was a bluff. The republican party is not likely to put the magnates of their own creation in jail. It has often been alleged that if the head officials of great trusts were tried under the criminal clause of the Sherman law they could be readily convicted. Whether the prosecuting attorneys were in earnest in this particular case is not certain; but the result of the trial will be urged as another proof of the inadequacy of the Sherman law and in advocacy of its repeal.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

The presidential primary in this state will be something new. The ballot on the democratic side will present the delegations favoring Foss and Wilson. Signatures have been secured for Champ Clark's delegation; but Mr. Clark has announced that he will make no contest in any state in which a local candidate is running. To get a delegation on the ballot for any candidate 1000 signatures are needed and of these there must be 250 from each of four different counties. This work alone requires the activity of a few politicians.

TAFT FAR IN THE LEAD

The evidence is now cumulative that Taft will bury Roosevelt in the contest for the nomination. New York and Indiana voted heavily in favor of Taft which has given the Colonel a severe shock. The Roosevelt men held a rump convention in Indiana and appointed a bolting delegation which will be barred from the convention. Roosevelt is protesting that New York did not treat him fairly. New York simply smiles.

WILL ROOSEVELT EXPLAIN?

Col. Roosevelt has given his views upon the recall of judges and judicial decisions as upon what he vaguely calls the rule of the people; but he has not yet told the people of this country what changes he would make on the tariff, whether he would admit foodstuffs free and how he would prevent the trusts from robbing the people. Perhaps he will do all of this and much more in the speech-making tour on which he has just started.

Mayor Gaynor of New York is making so many public speeches that he seems to be desirous of attracting political attention that might make him a presidential possibility.

SEEN AND HEARD

When you are afflicted with that pestiferous hallucination of the mind known as the blues, it is not at all an unwise move to stroll into the nearest vaudeville house as a means of diversion. This you may desire because the girl you like has intimated that it would be advisable for you to go way back and sit down, or because the boss at the office, mill or store has informed you that there is nothing doing in regard to that raise, or because the fellow you admire you have chummed around has borrowed fifty and then, also as is really left town for New York. Whatever may be the cause, the condition is there and the question at hand arises: What am I going to do about it? Try a show. You enter and sit down with an expression on your face that would appear unusually doleful at a funeral. The orchestra begins to play. At first the effect of the music on your feelings is hardly perceptible; then some melody which may have been whistled by your grandfather when he was just learning to shave touches a sympathetic chord in your heart and your face shortens one inch; then a popular waltz causes the blood to flow a little more rapidly and another inch is subtracted from the length of your countenance; then a favorite air of yours comes floating along and, presto, before you realize it you have for the time being forgotten about the girl, or the boss or the erstwhile chum and, after you have unconsciously begun humming the tune yourself, you settle back in your seat with the feeling that perhaps, yes perhaps your affairs are not as dark as they seem to be.

While in this receptive mood for amusement, a monologue artist whose principal outward distinction is a bright green vest, staggering onto the stage with as delicate a manner as if he were certain that one audience would never let him leave it again; hands out a bunch of wisecracks that cause you first to smile, later to chuckle, afterward to laugh and finally to pound your palms together until blisters are imminent. Following the green-vested gentleman there comes tripping before the footlights a vivacious looking damsel who gets away with some cute and catchy songs about June nights and moon-lit paths and all that sort of stuff, in which you cannot take oath that you are altogether uninterested. After she has received her final round of applause from the gentlemen, married and single, sitting in "baldheads' row" and has also been the unknowing recipient of the criticisms of some of the feminine connoisseurs of dress among the audience, there appears for your entertainment a youth, attired in a soft shirt, corduroy trousers with a bandana handkerchief knotted about his neck, who giving a preliminary touch or two to his violin, begins his "turn" with the popular selection from Il Trovatore. The strains of this beautiful melody are soothing and they exercise a delightful influence over the emotional side of your disposition. As the last notes of Il Trovatore die away the violinist, striking up "Everybody's Doing It," carries you from the sublime to the ridiculous, yet in your case it is not an altogether unsatisfactory variation, for have you not come to the theatre that you might be diverted as well as entertained? Then, the violinist, making his bow amid long continued clapping, you are successively amused or interested by several other acts, each of which contributes its share in raising your spirits and when the curtain finally goes down you leave the playhouse feeling almost as light hearted as a schoolboy when the four o'clock bell strikes on a Friday afternoon.

Don't forget that your dog license is due April 1 and that you are subject to a fine of $15 if your dog is not licensed on or before that date.

"Private" John Allen of Mississippi was in his office one day, when a very seedy and exceedingly unwashed tramp came in and told him a tale of woe.

"I need a little money," said the tramp, "for I am in a bad fix. Not only am I hungry, but I am all broken up physically. I have dislocated my left shoulder."

"In that event," said Allen dryly, "you must have tried to put on a clean shirt."

"I have made it a rule through life," he said at the table the other day to one at his left, "never to meddle with another man's business."

"That's right—perfectly right," was the reply.

"But I see you have a new confidential clerk."

"Yes, sir—yes."

"He's a hard-looking case; I have seen him intoxicated a dozen times, and I wouldn't trust him out of my sight with a sixpence. Took him out of charity, eh?"

"Well, not altogether, you know. He happens to be my eldest son."

There was a period of silence so painful that both wished some one would yell "Fire" to break it up.

THE HUMBLE TOILER

To work while yet the dawn is red
The humble toiler fares elate;
And daily earns his meed of bread,
And vexes not o'er questions great.

He knows no bidden Asteroid,
Or, if the Sun is burning out;
To him the far is not the Void,
And God he has not learned to doubt.

But he finds joy in simple things
And knows the peace of sweet, fair fields;
He drinks of sparkling, crystal springs,
And sees the beauty Nature yields.

He cares not if we sail the air,
Or bridge the Ocean vast and wide;
But he sees that the world is fair,
And Love is toiling by his side.

Our Lyric Choir he does not know;
For him old Homer sang in vain;
But he can feel the soft winds blow,
And hear the silver plash of rain.

And he can know a child's sweet love,
And find at home enjoyment sweet;
He sees the heavens smile above,
And hears the lark the morning greet.

A toiler with his spade and plow—
Yet happy as the rich can be:
He lives in the unfolding Now,
A soul content and glad and free!

—George L. Andrews, in The Christian Herald.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Lewiston Sun: All will be something if the British Government's failure to settle the coal strike is so complete that hereafter it keeps out of the strike-settling business. Better a good deal more of suffering from business paralysis than the establishment of an appeal of a labor dispute to the government. Let government just maintain order; let the employers and employes work out their own differences to their own compromises.

AS OTHERS SEE US

Springfield Union: It is of interest to note that the operatives of Lowell are largely composed of elements that did not figure in the Lawrence strike to any great extent. There are many Greeks and French-Canadians and some Poles and Portuguese in Lowell, but comparatively few Italians and Syrians.

Greeks are reported to be slow to accept the I. W. W. leadership. The Portuguese and Poles responded to the call of the strike organizers with considerable readiness, though much less formidable in numbers than some of the other nationalities. However, the strike has had the effect of tying up the Lowell situation and temporarily throwing all the operatives out of work.

Fortunately, no inclination to indulge in riots has yet been in evidence, but a favorable outcome of the deliberations will be urgently desired and if a protracted shutdown should ensue impatience will become acute. However, the probabilities strongly favor an early compromise that will set the looms running again with the usual quota of operatives.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Lawrence Telegram: The law now provides for capital punishment in all of the states of the Union except Michigan, Wisconsin, Rhode Island, Kansas and Maine. Iowa abolished it in 1872, but restored it in 1878. Colorado also abolished it, but later replaced it on the statute books.

The substitution of the electric chair for the gallows has had, no doubt, the effect of somewhat modifying the one-time opposition to the death penalty, but the agitation will continue. It is safe to say that it will continue, however, until society finds a more effective way of protecting itself against life-takers.

THE INSURANCE BUSINESS

Worcester Post: Whether the insurance business can be regarded as interstate commerce is a question not yet fully determined. But as organized and controlled nowadays, on a basis that includes some radical defects, it certainly contains enormous waste and very likely illegality and wholly unjustifiable discriminations as alleged in the resolution for investigation introduced in congress yesterday. It is by no means impossible that a comprehensive inquiry may be helpful toward better methods.

DRIVING HORSES

Brockton Times: Where are the splendid, sleek-coated, clean-limbed driving horses we used to see constantly on the streets of all our cities. It is only at irregular and infrequent intervals that we run across one now. Is it possible that the automobile has to a large extent replaced the noble roadster?

TRIUMPH FOR WISCONSIN.

Nashville Democrat: After forty years of non-recognition, a comparatively unknown composer named Faisell scored a great success before an immense audience in Paris Sunday. The first part of his "Tableaux Symphoniques" was rendered, being characterized by curious impressionist effects, the music portraying the excessive Egyptian heat, the slow, arduous toiling of slaves and the cries of vultures and ends with the triumphant return of Pharoah. The composer was compelled to appear on the stage and bow his acknowledgment of the applause, which continued for ten minutes. There is tragedy in the triumph when it is remembered what it would have meant to the artist and to the world of music, too, had it come years ago.

THE VERACITY ISSUE.

Worcester Post: The issue of veracity which so generally follows Roosevelt now arises on the question whether he pledged support of La Follette for president. Gifford Pinchot denies the statement to that effect of Col. W. L. Hauser, the La Follette manager. Pinchot also says Hauser himself was the first to announce La Follette's withdrawal and the first to join in the effort to bring Roosevelt into the field.

WHAT YOU CAN'T DO.

Springfield Republican: Mississippi has passed a law imposing a fine of $100 for asking or giving a tip in a hotel, sleeping car, or dining car. This is a great country. There are states where the traveler cannot buy a drink on the train. In other states he is forbidden to drink even if he has a flask in his bag. He must know where he is going before committing any rash act like lighting a cigaret or tipping the porter. We believe there is as yet no state where the traveler is forbidden to yawn.

SEN. STEPHENSON

Retains His Seat in the Senate

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Senator Stephenson of Wisconsin, octogenarian millionaire banker and lumber man, retains his seat. By a vote of 40 to 34 the senate declared his election valid and rejected the charge that $107,793 which the senator admitted spending in the Wisconsin primaries was used corruptly. Twenty-eight republicans and twelve democrats voted to hold Senator Stephenson's election was lawful. Eighteen democrats and sixteen republicans voted to declare it corruptly obtained. The ballots were cast as follows:

For Stephenson: Bradley, Brandegee, Briggs, Burnham, Burton, Clark of Wyoming, Crane, Curtis, Dillingham, Dupont, Gamble, Heyburn, Lippitt, Lodge, Lorimer, McCumber, McLean, Nixon, Oliver, Page, Penrose, Perkins, Richardson, Root, Smoot, Sutherland, Warren and Wetmore, republicans; Bankhead, Chilton, Fletcher, Foster, Johnston, Newlands, Overman, Pomerene, Rayner, Smith of Maryland, Watson and Thornton, democrats.

Against Stephenson: Borah, Bourne, Bristow, Brown, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Dixon, Gronna, Jones, Kenyon, La Follette, Poindexter, Smith of Michigan, Townsend and Works, republicans; Bryan, Chamberlain, Culberson, Gardner, Hitchcock, Johnson, Kern, Lea, Martine, Myers O'Gorman, Owen, Percy, Shively, Smith of Georgia, Smith of South Carolina, Stone and Williams, democrats.

The pairs were: Nelson with Bacon, Gallinger with Clarke of Arkansas, Guggenheim with Davis, Collom with Simmons, Paynter with Gore, and Bailey with Reed, the first named in each case being favorable to Stephenson and the last named against him.

The senators unrecorded and unpaired were: Martin and Swanson, Virginia; Taylor of Tennessee; Tillman of South Carolina, and Mr. Stephenson, who, of course, refrained from voting.

For Senator Taylor, Mr. Lea explained that he was too ill to be consulted.

Senator Stephenson declared he felt a vindication was due to him.

"I never spent a dollar wrongfully in my life," said he. "In 66 years of active management of large institutions I have employed several thousand men—three generations of them and never had a strike. I never used a dollar for a fraud of any kind."

Senator Lorimer, whose vote for Senator Stephenson was greeted by an outburst of laughter in the senate galleries, is under similar charges.

The vote came at the end of a day's speech making by Senators Pomerene and Sutherland for Mr. Stephenson and Senators Cummins, Lea, O'Gorman and Poindexter against him. Mr. Poindexter said Senator Stephenson's alleged offense was greater than that charged against Senator Lorimer. Sen. Lea said that Sen. Stephenson's workers violated the rules of ordinary decency and propriety and wept because there was nothing left to violate.

GOVERNOR DIX

Has No Power to Order New Election

ALBANY, N. Y., March 28.—Gov. Dix has no power to order another primary election in New York city as the question is one with which the legislature and the courts must deal. This was the substance of an opinion given to Gov. Dix last night by Attorney General Carmody.

William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the republican state committee in a statement last night contends that there is no legal standing to the suggestion that another primary be held.

The opinion of the attorney general was given the governor after the latter had received a telegram from Chas. H. Duell of New York, chairman of the Roosevelt committee, protesting against the conditions that existed at the primaries yesterday and suggesting that another primary be held "to abate the public sense of outrage and to solve an intolerable situation."

After a talk with Mr. Carmody, Senator Stillwell introduced a bill yesterday to give the courts the power to order a new primary. Objections by Majority Leader Wagner and Minority Leader Brackett to the advancement of the measure practically precludes any action being taken on the bill at this session of the legislature.

Mr. Barnes gave out the following statement:

"The failure of the printer to provide the official ballots for the primary on Tuesday in the city of New York at the hour of the opening of the polls, was most unfortunate because the defeated candidates now are endeavoring publicly to applaud the title of their successful opponents.

"Section 81 of the election law, however, governs distinctly the failure of a printer to produce ballots by providing for the use of official ballots so that ample opportunity was afforded the various candidates to supply the difficulty of the printer. This provision of the law absolutely establishes the election of those who received a plurality of the votes that were cast and there is no power in the legislature or in the courts of the state to take away from the candidate so elected, the rights which they secured at the primary.

"Suggestion that another primary be held, therefore, cannot possibly have any meaning because it can have no legal standing.

"It is not surprising that those who advocate lawlessness and disregard of constitutional rights in other matters should be unwilling to submit to the law in this case where the accident in the delay is furnishing the ballots unquestionably resulted in a less pronounced expression of the popular will of the enrolled republicans against them.

"Returns indicate that nearly 200,000 republicans in the state of New York voted at the primaries on Tuesday, although in most districts no opposition candidates were nominated."

PRESIDENT TAFT

ENDORSED BY N. H. REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE

CONCORD, N. H., March 28.—The administration of President Taft was "heartily, unqualifiedly approved," and his renomination favored in resolutions adopted at a meeting of the Republican state committee last night. The vote stood 87 to 27, the opposition being led by supporters of Gov. Robert P. Bass, who was one of the seven governors who urged Col. Roosevelt to enter the field.

The committee also adopted a resolve providing that candidates for delegates to the Chicago convention shall have their presidential preference stated on the ballot and in this way the desire of the voters be ascertained.

The date for the republican state convention was fixed by the committee as April 30.

STRIKE IS THREATENED

New Bedford Cotton Mill Operatives May be Ordered Out

NEW BEDFORD, March 28.—The possibility of a strike of thousands of cotton mill operatives in this city was faced by the New Bedford Manufacturers association which was scheduled to meet today to again consider the demands of the millworkers for an advance of 10 per cent. in wages. The members of the association assembled last Monday but deferred final action until a special committee which was appointed to investigate the wage matter had made its report today. The workers have refused to accept an increase of five per cent. granted by the manufacturers.

"A ten per cent. increase or a strike" is the ultimatum of the labor leaders.

It is admitted that the labor situation here is critical. During the past few days restlessness on the part of the operatives has been noticed. Some persons say that only the cold weather has kept the operatives in the mills. While a number of the manufacturers are said to favor giving an increase of seven per cent as a compromise, it is declared that the workers will remain firm in their demand. Secretary Duffy of the textile council has asserted that no compromise would be considered.

Approximately 30,000 persons are employed in the local mills.

JAMES P. RAMSAY

Complimented by Jurors at Cambridge

Probation Officer James P. Ramsay, of the superior court, was the recipient of a neat compliment yesterday from Judge McLaughlin and the jurors now sitting in the criminal session at East Cambridge.

The members assembled about the popular probation officer and Judge McLaughlin in their behalf complimented him and the county on the efficiency and broad scope of the work done by him as probation officer. The jurors during the session had a good opportunity to observe the work done by the probation officer together with the great and satisfactory results and were so strongly impressed that they took occasion to make public expression of the fact. Officer Ramsay responded gracefully. The Lowell men on the criminal panel are Messrs. Martin H. Reidy, manager of The Lowell Sun; Ex-Councilman Frederick G. Baldwin, Arthur M. Bertrand, Simon Dean, Charles M. Erskine, Fred P. Folsom and John J. Haviland.

JAMES P. RAMSAY,
Probation Officer.

The following letter was presented to Judge McLaughlin:

Middlesex County Criminal Court,
March Term, 1912.

To the Honorable John D. McLaughlin,
Justice of the Superior Court.

We, the undersigned jurors, having observed the manner in which cases are handled in this court in reference to the system of probation, wish to express our admiration of the efforts that are being made to reform those who come under its operation, not only the young but those of mature age, and of both sexes. We feel that many of those brought before the court are not of the criminal class, and under the watchful care of the probation officer, may be led to seek a better ideal of life, and become law abiding citizens.

Signed by all the jurors of the March term of Court, Middlesex Co., 1912.

AMERICAN CHAMPION LOST

PARIS, March 28.—Ferdinand Poggenburg, the American champion, lost another game yesterday in the amateur international billiard tournament for the championship of the world. He was defeated by Arthur, the French player, 400 to 257.

SOMETHING NEW FOR HOUSEKEEPERS BE SURE TO TRY IT

Carbonol is a coal tar product and if you add a dash of it to water used in cleaning, you will find that the water immediately becomes more effective in dissolving dirt and grease.

As Carbonol will not hurt anything, it is a good idea to add it to the water anyway, whether you have a difficult cleaning job or not.

FOR OBSTINATE DIRT

Many a housewife never knows how dirty her floors have been until she has tried Carbonol on them and sees how much cleaner they can be made. There are many kinds of dirt which soap and water alone will not dissolve. Anything of a greasy or oily nature will resist water because water and oil won't mix. When Carbonol is added to the water, the grease is immediately dissolved and the work of cleaning is accordingly very much simplified.

FOR RUST

Carbonol water is splendid for removing rust from iron. It is, in fact, the only thing which will remove rust without great labor. It will remove verdigris from metal and stains from marble, wood and cloth.

FOR THE SINK

Wash out the kitchen sink with Carbonol water and you will find it much easier to clean on account of the dissolving of the grease. If the drain pipe from the sink is choked with accumulated grease, pour a little pure Carbonol down the pipe and the grease will be dissolved, thus saving a plumber's bill.

FOR HARNESS

Carbonol water will clean harness which is very greasy and which cannot be made to look bright and nice to handle except with the use of such a grease solvent.

Carbonol is also a deodorant. It will suppress odors by stopping the decomposition which is the cause. It is also a powerful germicide and will prevent contagion from disease and kill germs anywhere.

It can be used to clean wounds, to prevent blood poisoning, and it will be equally effective for killing germs in a henhouse.

10c, 25c and 50c a bottle at the druggist's. We will be glad to send a sample free on request. Barrett Manufacturing Company, 297 Franklin street, Boston, Mass.

STAR MEMBERS OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS AS THEY LOOKED AFTER DAY'S WORK

NEW YORK, March 28.—The finishing touches are now being put on the 1912 Giants and the would-bes, and if recent games may be taken as evidence they are being applied by a master hand. The players are in good condition despite the fact that they were idle most of the time while at the training camp in Marlin Springs, Tex. But in the battles with the minor league clubs the men played with lots of ginger. The batting of the team has been strong and the base running excellent. McGraw's training methods this season have been different from any other manager's. The men played tennis and golf, did a little boxing and wrestling, besides the regular stunts that are necessary to fit the men for the playing season. In the evening dancing was advocated for some, while men like Mathewson and Wiltse spent some time in playing checkers. McGraw says this method did much to break the monotony of the training. Picture in corner shows Catcher Meyers resting after a day's work, enjoying a smoke from his meerschaum pipe; on right Pitcher Marquard and Outfielder Devore taking it easy outside the hotel, while Larry Doyle, the Giants' captain and second baseman, has been asked to "look pleasant" by the camera man.

THE WAMESITS WON

Defeated the Merrimack Valley Team

Two games in the Manchester Unity league were rolled on Les Miserables alleys last night. In the first game the Wamesits won from the Merrimack Valley team, taking all the points. McKinley was high man with 280, and Silcox got the high single, 101. In the second match the Integrity lodge won three points from the Excelsiors, in an exciting game. The defeated quintet took the first string, but fell down in the remainder of the game. Dudley was the high man, getting a single of 107 and a total of 270. The scores:

The Neverswets and the Giants had at it on the Crescent alleys last night and each team got away with two points. The Neverswets took the first string hands down, putting up the fine score of 502. IN SALEM

BIG PARADE OF C. T. A. SOCIETIES WILL BE HELD

The Fr. Mathew society of Haverhill has withdrawn from the contest for the big state parade of the Catholic Total Abstinence societies and the demonstration will now be held in Salem. The total abstinence societies of Salem have long been desirous of holding the parade in the Witch City this year, mainly on account of its being the 25th anniversary of the unveiling of the Fr. Mathew monument, which stands in the public square. After the situation had been explained to the Haverhill men, and the plans which they had made for a big celebration, the Haverhill men gracefully withdrew from the race for the parade. All the Catholic total abstinence societies in the state will be invited to Salem to take part in the parade.

Wilkins
VERMONT'S GREATEST
MAGNETIC HEALER

WHO IS MAKING CURES THAT STARTLE SUFFERING HUMANITY

Have you seen this man? Are you suffering from any of the ills so common to humanity? Do you know that the cures made by this man are absolutely without drugs or medicine. No other than his wonderful magnetic power demonstrated through scientific manipulation.

Read what people say about him, then go and see him for yourself. It won't cost you one cent to see this man and find out if he can help you. He treats all classes of disease without medicine. He refuses to treat you unless he can help you. Prof. Wilkins has been located in Lowell six weeks and many have been made to rejoice by him during this time.

PERSONAL STATEMENTS

"This is to certify that I have been a great sufferer for years with a weak stomach and bowels. I also had a terrible rectal trouble. I went to Prof. Wilkins for treatment after several doctors told me my case was a hopeless one. Prof. Wilkins treated me one month and I gained from the first treatment and today I am glad to acknowledge this man as having saved my life. PHILIP N. TROXELL."

"My nephew was saved from the asylum, if not the grave, by Prof. Wilkins. SARAH SLADE, Montpelier, Vt."

H. W. Hughee of Montpelier, Vt., writes: "It is with pleasure I acknowledge the cures Prof. Wilkins has made in my family. He saved my life, after a council of doctors gave me up to die. Read my testimonial which I submit to Prof. Wilkins."

Prof. Wilkins can be seen at Rooms 19-20 Bon Marche building, Lowell, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. All electric cars transfer past our door. A lady assistant to receive and entertain you. Elevator service in building. Treatments given at your home by appointment. Address Prof. B. G. Wilkins, Bon Marche Bldg., Room 20, Lowell, Mass.

CLASSY PROGRAM

For Meeting of Lowell S. and A. Club

For tomorrow night's meeting of the Lowell Social and Athletic club there is a good program scheduled. The list includes four cracker-jack bouts. The first will be of six rounds and will be provided by Tommy Doyle of the Acre and Young Reynolds from Centralville. Both are very fast boys and are in great trim for the contest. The other three bouts will be 10 rounds each and in all well known men will appear. In the first of these Johnny Munlee and Kid Albenas, both from Boston, will be the principals. Both are very aggressive mixers and as they gave one clever exhibition here a short time ago their number tomorrow night ought to be a good one. Another hummer on the card will present Young Boyle of Lowell and Young Byers of Boston. Boyle has been training hard all week for the go and is in the pink of condition. He says that he never felt better and expects to put away the boy from the Hub. He is also well trained and confident of coming out on top. The final will show one of the best boys who ever appeared at the club, Tommy Flannigan. He is a heavy hitter and a scientific boxer. He is in good condition for the mill and expects to win. Flannigan will meet Kid Lee who hails from Chelsea, also very proficient in the art of self-defense. He has put a number of men away and comes here with a great record. He was to appear here at a previous meeting but owing to an accident was unable to do so. This time, though, he promises to be here and show the members that he has the goods. All the men are well matched and it should be one of the best shows of the season. The first bout will start promptly at 8.15 o'clock and Billy Gardner will act as decision maker.

C. Y. M. L. TEAM

WILL PLAY SACRED HEARTS AT MATHEW HALL TONIGHT

A basketball game that promises to be one of the fastest of the season will be played at Mathew hall on Dutton street tonight when the C. Y. M. L. team meets the Sacred Hearts. The teams are great rivals, and have played many exciting contests in the past few years. The Lyceum team is one of the fastest in this vicinity and has established a great record this season. The recent victory of the team over the Mysteries places the Lyceum boys in a position to claim the city championship. The Sacred Hearts have also a good record on the floor this season and feel that they will make the fast acre quintet go some to win. The teams have already played one game and it resulted in a victory for the Lyceum team by the close score of 14 to 11. It was a great game and the rooters of both teams expect that tonight's contest will be one of the best ever. The floor is neutral to both teams and William Wilson of the Y. M. C. A. will referee.

STAKING HIS CLAIM

THE COAL CONSUMERS

Are Well Supplied According to the Operators

NEW YORK, March 28.—On the eve of a suspension of work in the anthracite coal region because of the inability of the operators and the miners to come to an agreement on the wage scale and certain working conditions wholesale coal dealers and shippers say today the coal panic among consumers has practically subsided. The larger buyers of coal have laid in their supplies and the demand for anthracite in this market has fallen off.

The early strike talk caused an unusual demand but the wholesalers say that this has been satisfied. It is officially stated that reports of a dissention among the members of the anthracite operators' committee as to the policy to be pursued toward the mine workers are unfounded. Operators here decline to discuss the situation. There has been an unusual rush to charter vessels to carry soft coal abroad because of the situation in England but whether this demand can be satisfied in the event of a suspension in the bituminous region could not be learned today.

RETREAT FOR MEN

Opened at Sacred Heart Last Evening

The retreat for the men at the Sacred Heart church opened last evening with a very large attendance. The exercises were began by congregational singing. The men showed their earnestness and fervor by the manner in which they rendered the hymns. The rosary was recited by Very Rev. Fr. Smith, O. M. I. The preacher of the retreat, Rev. Patrick J. Phelan, O. M. I. takes as his text the words of the prophet Jeremiah, "With desolation is the whole land made desolate because there is no man who considereth in his heart," delivered a very powerful and impressive sermon on the supreme importance of eternal salvation. After exposing the inconsistency of men today in their profession of faith and in their practice of it he dwelt upon the necessity and importance of the work of salvation. Pointing out the vanity of the things of this life the preacher considered the immortality of the human soul, the price paid for its redemption by Christ on the Cross and the inevitableness of death and judgment. All these facts were well set forth by striking examples. He concluded by exhorting the men to consider well the great and fundamental truths of their holy faith and to so live up to its teachings that when death comes and judgment is at hand they will have achieved the sole purpose of life—their soul's salvation.

Services were concluded by benediction of the most blessed sacrament given by Rev. Fr. Fletcher, O. M. I.

The exercises of the retreat will continue on Thursday and Friday evenings at 7.30 o'clock and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings at 5 and 8 o'clock. The retreat will close on Sunday evening at 6.30 o'clock when the papal benediction will be imparted to the men by Rev. Fr. Phelan.

Physicians Agree On Internal Baths

The most enlightened physicians, including many of the greatest specialists, are recommending and prescribing the use of the J. B. L. Cascade. Nature's own cure for constipation.

It keeps the lower intestine sweet and clean and eliminates all poisons in the waste which it contains.

Otherwise these poisons are distributed throughout the body; this weakens the whole system, makes us dull and bilious, and even brings on serious complaints.

The J. B. L. Cascade cleans the colon of all waste, and is shown by the Riley-Hayes' Drug Store in Lowell.

BICYCLISTS IN DISPUTE

Over whether the chainless or anti-chainless bicycle is the best may settle it as they see fit, but they never argue about the superior merits of the Pierce Racycle or Ives Johnson, or any other wheel carried in stock by us. Easy running, graceful and stylish. Light and strong, they can't be excelled. And this is the place where good repair work is done.

DREAM CAME TRUE

MAN THOUGHT HE WAS ARRESTED AND HE WAS

BOSTON, March 28.—The average person laughs off a distasteful dream when he wakes up, but Joseph A. Ward of 127 Lenox street, a negro window washer, did not. In a dream Tuesday night he saw minions of the law closing in on him and, behold, his dream came true yesterday, when he was arrested, after a chase of almost half a mile in the South End. Later "Joe" was arraigned before Judge Sullivan in the municipal court on a charge of forging and uttering two checks and was held for the grand jury in $2000.

According to the arresting officers, "Joe," in the course of his half-mile run bowled over a man named John Trumbridge and a milk man who attempted to capture him.

The chase started at 437 Columbus avenue and continued through Pembroke street, where "Joe" took to alleyways and byways until he came out to Tremont street with the officers and a large crowd of men and boys in close pursuit. Mr. Trumbridge happened to be eating dinner in a restaurant and left his meal to stop "Joe." The latter bowled over everybody and everything that tried to intervene until the milkman got a hold on his coattails and brought him to the ground.

Inspectors Cronin and O'Neil of headquarters and Inspector Newton of the William J. Burns National Detective Agency, brought "Joe" to police headquarters.

It is alleged that Ward secured $220 on the two checks, but the police say he obtained $150 additional by means of other false checks and that these charges will be preferred later.

JOHN MUIR

RETURNS FROM A TWELVE MONTHS EXPEDITION

NEW YORK, March 28.—John Muir, the naturalists, who has just passed his 74th birthday, was back in New York today after a 12 months expedition which would have taxed the energies of most men of forty years his junior. He started out in April, 1911, in search of a rancaria tree which he had seen before only in figurative captivity in the botanical garden of civilization but which he thought might be found native in some of the Amazon forests. The tree is a survival from an early geological period and is regarded by botanists as one of the most interesting in existence.

Y. M. C. I. BOWLING NOTES

Joe Mullin of St. Orbans tied Andy Doyle of the Washingtons for high single last week with 113.

The weekly tickets for the Alhambra were captured by Capt. Katie and "Postmaster" Jack Dannelley of the Comets. "Hippie" Burns of the Cubs and Capt. Luke McCann of the Oxfords.

Jim Carlin, "The Kink of Hiberdan hall" will receive a season pass for the Lakeview Theatre this coming year.

In the Oxford-Washington game Tuesday night the Oxfords were beaten by one pin in the third string. Looking over the Washington score sheet they found a mistake of two pins giving them the string. The Washingtons also looked over the Oxford score sheet and found an error of two pins. The Oxfords "played baby" and protested the game.

It was thought the Oxfords had first place cinched but "Rab" Whelan's outfit is going some.

The Orients and the Cavaliers meet tonight and great rivalry is shown.

The new song hit "Everybody's Doing It" seems to effect the bowlers somewhat. Judging from the number of 7-10 and splits that are being chalked up.

The banquet will be pulled off on April 16 and Pres. John H. Cole announces that a large (in quality) string of speakers is promised.

BOY MURDERED

His Body Was Found in the Woods

PROVIDENCE, March 28.—With throat cut, head battered and bearing other marks of violence, the body of William Mothers, a boy of 12, who disappeared after school on the afternoon of February 29, was found in the woods last night.

The spot where it was found was but 500 yards from the schoolhouse. The boy was the son of a mill worker residing in North Providence.

MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

At the Opera house this afternoon and evening and every day for the remainder of the week the attraction will be the wonderful Pathe motion pictures of the Passion play, presenting in beautifully colored and life like motion pictures, scenes and incidents in the life of Christ. The Pathe company is acknowledged to be the world's best makers of colored motion pictures and its representation of this sacred drama is said to be the last word in the art of motion photography. Over five hundred people take part in the representation which is presented in a reverential and impressive manner. The pictorial story begins with the appearance to Mary, of The Angel Gabriel, who tells her that she is to become the mother of the Son of God. Mary and Joseph are seen returning to their native village. The Inn is so crowded with travellers that Mary is obliged to take shelter in the stall with the oxen. Next are seen the shepherds watching their flocks by night, a bright star appears and also the angel of God, saying: "Behold unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord." Then follows in sequence the birth and familiar scenes in the life of Christ. Some of the impressive scenes are that of Jesus entering Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, Christ before Pilate, the scourging and crowning with thorns, the journey to Calvary, and the resurrection and the ascension. So clearly and vividly is the enactment of this sacred drama presented that a lasting realization of the story of the crucifixion is given the auditor, and one that can never be effaced. The Passion Play will be given every afternoon and evening during the remainder of the week. Prices for the afternoon will be ten cents to all parts of the house, evenings ten and twenty cents reserved.

"THE COUNTRY BOY."

After over a three months' successful engagement in Boston, "The Country Boy," a finely acted comedy of city life, comes to the Opera House for one day. The play is said to be brimful of crisp and delightful dialogue and laughter creating incidents and will be seen here with the same excellent cast and elaborate production as given in Boston. In the company are George A. Wright, H. Dudley Hawley, Joseph Kaufman, Mrs. Charles G. Craigg, Ethel C. Clayton, Carolyn Elberts and all the other favorites of this excellent company.

SPRING BOOKINGS

Among the spring bookings at the Opera House are those of "The Spring Maid," Billie Burke, Montgomery and Stone, "The Littlest Rebel," "Excuse Me" and "The Confession."

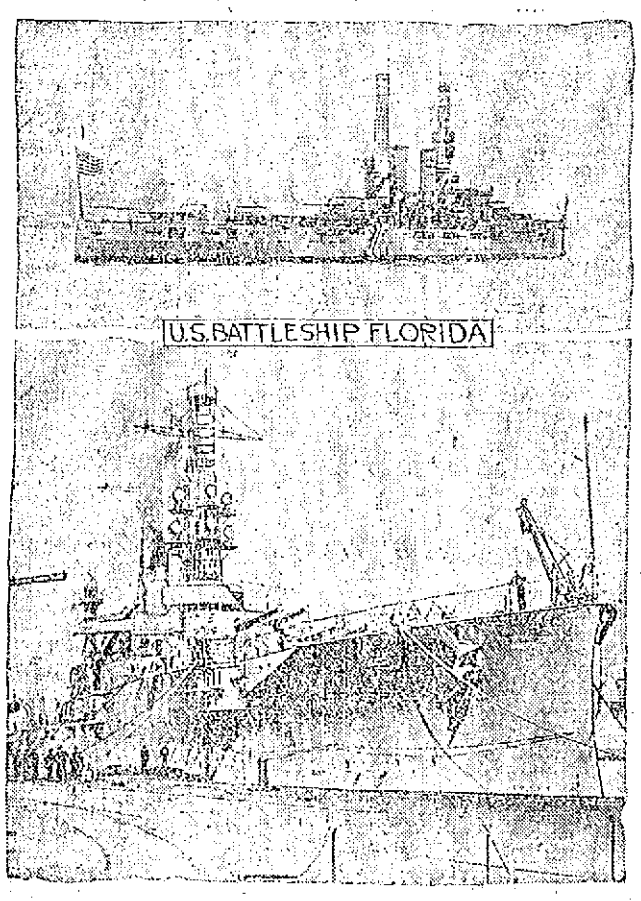

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

The bill at Keith's this week is exceptionally attractive and is bound to please the most fastidious for it has a number of choice bits. Two of the acts constitute two plays in themselves, one a pretty romance and the other a nonsensical and decidedly funny musical comedy. The first referred to is W. S. Gilbert's beautiful love story in two scenes entitled "Sweethearts" and presented in admirable manner by Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Connolly, two exceptionally clever character actors from across the water. The scream of the bill is "The Models of Jardin de Paris" in which droll Percy Pollock and his elongated and equally droll companion, H. J. Kennedy, are much in evidence assisted by dainty little Miss Thelma Anglin and four charming little singing and dancing girls. Pollock and Kennedy are two uproariously funny performers, and you laugh from curtain to curtain. Harry Lavine and Sofie Bennett, two kids, are pleasing singers. Master Lavine has a most captivating voice. Speaking of voices Miss Leighton of Braddock and Leighton possesses a charming voice and the audience would like to hear her in more solos. They sing and exchange new repartee. Franklyn Ardell and Ann Walter present a humorous satire on the Votes for Women craze known as "The Suffragist." Joyce and Donnelly, "Red Hair and Blue Eyes," sing, dance and talk. The DeMarcos present a novel act on the suspended rings, while Sadie Dondelier demonstrates her claim to the title "Queen of the Wire." Then there are the pictures.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Our Stock company presenting Adele S. Burleson's clever playlet, "Hello! Then the Deluge," is scoring a big hit this week. Miss Constance Jackson is seen in the character of a telephone operator who falls victim to the wiles of a wealthy mine owner. She promises to follow his bidding for a runaway wedding but when the time comes for their departure she hears of the breaking of the dam, threatening the lives of the whole township, and realizing her duty to her own people, remains at her post of duty. In the meantime the mine owner's true identity is disclosed, and he makes a hurried exit to lands unknown. The closing scene sees the girl and her former lover united. Henry Dearing, a new member of the company is seen in the part of a young miner, and he creates a favorable impression by his work. West LaFay, a Lowell boy, is adequate as the mine owner. Kendal Weston does not appear in the cast, but he has personal supervision of the production. Presentations are given each afternoon and evening.

William Nickerson, a singer, dancer and entertainer, is one of the added features for the week, and Golden and Hughes, black-faced comedians are good entertainers. Gorgalor Brothers, world's greatest sharpshooters, perform many wonderful feats with the rifle. The presence of the American flags and the national colors gives a pleasing touch to the act. The photo-plays for the last three days of the week will provide one of the most enjoyable features of the presentation. They are the kind that instruct as well as entertain. The views of present-day events, provided exclusively for this theatre, are added attractions. On Friday night the Merrimack Square theatre concert orchestra will feature selections from the opera "Lucia Di Lammermoor." Patrons of the theatre wishing to have their favorite seats reserved for them from week to week are asked to have their names placed on the subscription list. It costs no more. Box office telephone 2053.

BATTLESHIP FLORIDA IS THE FASTEST DREADNOUGHT EVER BUILT

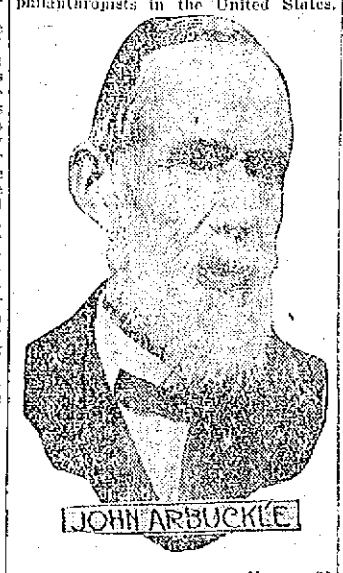

ROCKLAND, Me., March 28.—The battleship Florida, a ship constructed in the government navy yard at Brooklyn, was put through her paces over the measured mile course for standardization purposes. The highest speed she made, 22.34 knots, is not only the fastest ever attained by an American dreadnought, but is a record for her class throughout the world. The try-out was of particular interest because the Utah, built on the same lines by private builders, reached a speed of 21.637 knots, and they were much pleased that the Florida, built by the government, had exceeded that rate. The ship made twenty-two runs over the course, and the high wind and heavy seas had little or no effect upon her speed. She burned coal entirely under her boilers, as the oil fuel tanks are not yet in place.

JOHN ARBUCKLE

Was Well Known Coffee and Sugar Magnate

NEW YORK, March 28.—John Arbuckle, the noted sugar and coffee magnate and one of the best known philanthropists in the United States, died suddenly at his home. He was at his office on Saturday, seemingly in good health, but was taken with a chill and went home. He had been in the coffee and sugar business since 1871.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The Hatfield Stock company in a new sketch entitled "Ma, Look at Me," is in preparation to put over some big laughs the next three days. This is one of their screaming comedies, which will probably, like their other comedies, brings roars of laughter throughout. Clifton and Carson with up-to-date songs and dances, interspersed with plenty of comedy, have been reported upon from New York as being exceedingly clever. Flying Waldo, an aerial contortionist, will furnish the thrills while Katherine Jennings, a local singer, will be heard in illustrated songs. Four good pictures will make up the balance of the show.

ARREST CHAUFFEUR

He is Charged With Reckless Driving

BOSTON, March 28.—An automobile tearing up Hanover street, the operator apparently heedless of pedestrians, the police say, created no end of excitement about 10 o'clock last night.

The auto, which is owned by Hugh McIlreen, vice president of the Jersey City baseball team, was operated by David Steward, 23, a licensed chauffeur claiming to live at 28 Common street. He was arrested on the charge of recklessly operating the auto. Mr. McIlreen was at his home during the trouble.

Incidents leading up to Steward's arrest came fast. Patrolman Fox, of the City Hall station saw a crowd of enraged persons shouting and jeering at the occupants of the machine as it sped along at a 30-mile clip.

Somebody in the crowd shouted that the machine had knocked down and run over a man. Fox shouted to the chauffeur to stop. Instead, the officer said that the speed seemed to have been increased. Fox threatened to puncture the tires of the machine with bullets, as he claimed that the lives of a score or more of persons were placed in jeopardy.

The auto was finally boarded by Officer Fox, who was chasing it, followed by a large crowd. The officer managed to grab the door of the tonneau and then make a landing.

One of the features of the forenoon session was the reading of the district superintendent's annual reports.

LARCENY CHARGE

WOMAN FROM WHOM WILLIAMS TOOK MONEY IS DEAD

BOSTON, March 28.—Fred Williams, 43 years old, claiming New York as his home, for whom Detective Sergeant Irwin of the East Dedham street police station had been searching since July 17, 1910, when Williams left this city, was in the dock in the police court yesterday.

Sergeant Irwin met Williams Tuesday night and told him he had a warrant for his arrest, charging him with the larceny of $55 from Grace Rogers, of 32 Milford street.

"You can't do anything to me now, the Rogers woman is dead," declared Williams.

He was arrested, however, and Sergeant Irwin investigated and found that Grace Rogers had committed suicide by the use of a gas tube on the morning of January 29, last.

Judge Sullivan heard the facts in the case, and Williams told the story of how the dead woman had given him $55 to take to Roxbury and pay the rent for her house and that while he was on the car bound for Roxbury, he lost the money. He said then he went away. Judge Sullivan did not like the story, and sent Williams to the house of correction for one month.

SWINDLE CHARGED

FRED B. COOLEY ARRESTED BY BOSTON POLICE

BOSTON, March 28.—Fred B. Cooley, aged 46, who, it is alleged, has been obtaining fees of from 50 cents to $1 from poor families in the South End for examining their children's throats, was arrested by Patrolman Lane of Division 5 and arraigned yesterday before Judge Sullivan in the municipal court, charged with two counts of larceny and with illegally practising medicine. He was held in $500 for a hearing tomorrow.

Cooley was arrested by Inspectors Patterson and Norton six years ago for obtaining money under false pretences, and in 1905 by Capt. McCarty and Inspector Morrissey for swindling lawyers. His latest arrest came about through complaints made by one of his victims to Capt. Driscoll of the East Dedham street station.

According to the police, Cooley would visit a house and upon learning that the father was away would tell the housewife that he was from the board of health and insist on examining the children's throats.

OFFICERS BEATEN

During the fight word was sent to the police station and Supt. Welch ordered a detail of police in the automobile to go to the scene.

Patrolman David Petrie was one of the first officers to arrive and when he saw one of the men with an upraised hand over Patrolman Lennon he grabbed him. The man had a stone in his hand and was about to strike Patrolman Lennon. The man was ordered to desist but he refused to do so and Patrolman Petrie drew his club and then placed the man under arrest.

The other officers encountered some resistance at first but it was not many minutes before perfect quiet was restored and four of the men on their way to police headquarters. The men booked were: John Peckums, drunkenness and assault on an officer; Joseph Stupik, interfering with an officer; Mike Bouiwa, drunkenness; Leon Trophimowicz, assault on an officer. The latter secured bail later in the day.

On their arrival at the station, Patrolmen Kilfoy and Lennon's clothing were covered with mud and dirt. Officer Kilfoy's head showed a swelling, caused by a blow from a club, while his face was scratched slightly. Officer Lennon suffered a few slight scratches.

Jail Sentence

Leon Trokimowicz entered a plea of not guilty to assaulting an officer but the court found him guilty and sentenced him to twenty days in jail.

It was the same Davidson street affair or rather it occurred in a place that is commonly called "Cat alley," leading off Davidson street. Patrolman David Petrie testified that he saw the defendant pick up a large piece of stone and was about to throw it when he screamed and pulled his revolver.

The defendant denied his guilt but admitted that the officer had pulled the revolver on him.

Still Another Assault

Andrew Kochoski was charged with assault and battery on an unknown person. The defendant was in the vicinity of the Tremont & Suffolk mills yesterday, according to the testimony of Patrolman O'Keefe, and threw a snowball which struck a girl. He was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $5.

Assault on an Officer

John Pickuns was charged with assaulting a police officer while in the performance of his duty. A plea of not guilty was entered by the defendant but after the testimony had been heard and the evidence considered by the court, the man was found guilty and he was sentenced to one month in jail.

The assault took place in the vicinity of the corner of East Merrimack and Davidson streets and Patrolman William H. Reagan was the man assaulted.

Patrolman David Petrie testified that he arrested the defendant about six o'clock last night. He said he saw the defendant throw a brick which struck Patrolman Reagan in the back.

Patrolman Reagan said that he was struck in the back but did not know who threw the missile.

Patrolman John Dennett testified to seeing the defendant with a brick in his hand.

The defendant admitted that he had thrown a stone but that it did not strike any person. The man was sentenced to one month in jail.

Obstructing the Sidewalk

Michael Andralun was charged with drunkenness and obstructing a public thoroughfare, known as East Merrimack street. It is alleged that the defendant was in the mob which was raising trouble in the Belvidere section.

Patrolman Francis Moore testified that the man was in front of the Prescott mill and refused to move when ordered to do so. His testimony was corroborated by Patrolmen Considine, Sheridan and Lennon.

The man was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $6 for obstructing the street. The case of drunkenness being placed on file.

Jos. Stunek was brought into court this morning and arraigned on a complaint charging him with assault and battery on Patrolman William H. Killoy. He entered a plea of not guilty but after the witnesses had been heard he was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $40. The fine was paid.

Patrolman Killoy testified that he was struck by snowballs and other missiles while placing a man under arrest and subsequently the defendant struck him from behind.

Patrolman Lennon said that he was struck in the back of the head.

The defendant said he simply followed the crowd and did not interfere at all. The court, however, did not believe that the defendant was telling the truth and on considering the case found him guilty and imposed a fine of $40.

Violating City Ordinance

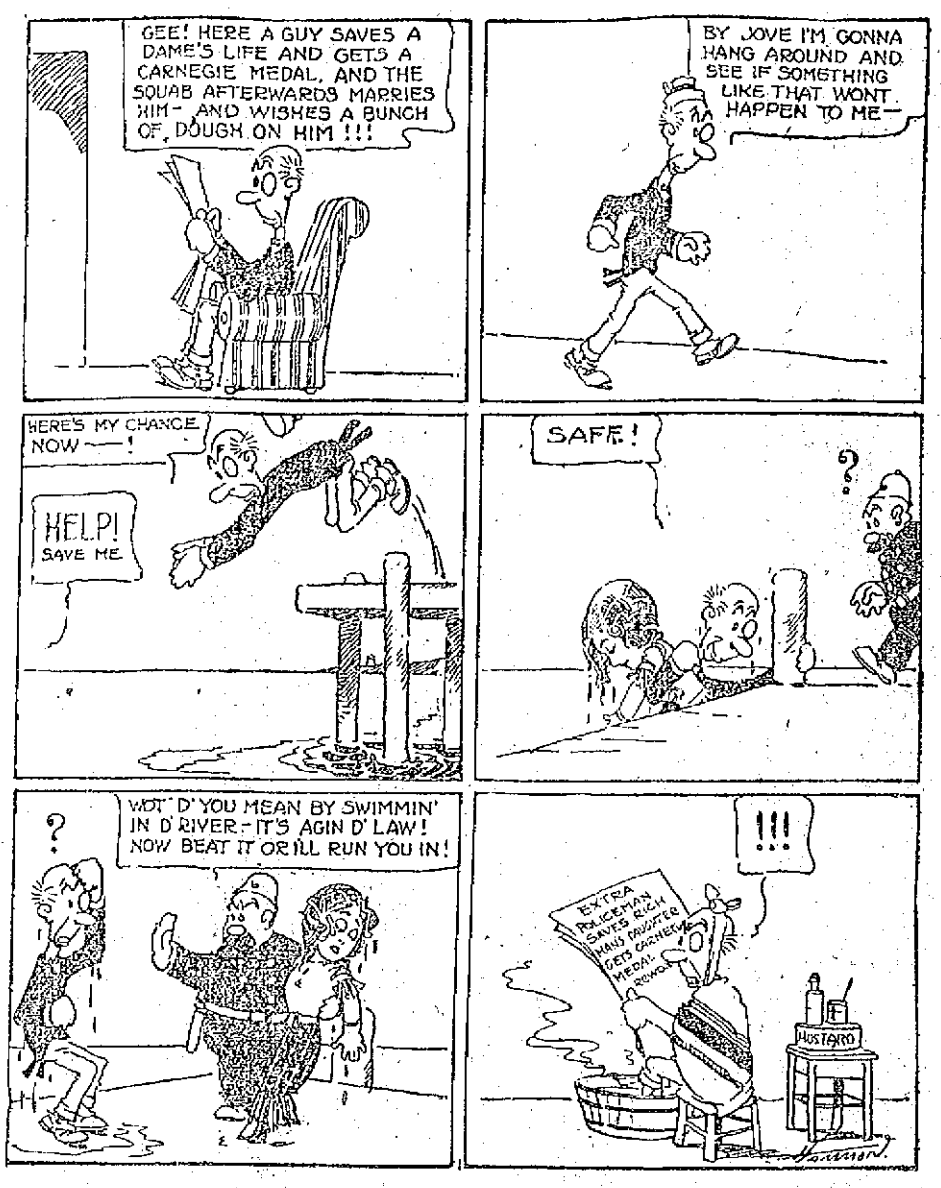

Simon Bue was charged with standing in Central street in violation of a city ordinance. Capt. Atkinson testified that the defendant was standing in front of the Mansur block in Central street. The former told the defendant to move on but the latter refused to do so. The witness said: "This man upon being ordered to move on said: "This is my place. Hurrah!" Patrolman David Petrie corroborated the testimony of the captain. He was fined $6.

An Alleged Striker

Jafer Ujeeim, an alleged striker, was charged with assault and battery on an unknown person but by agreement the case was continued until tomorrow.

Mr. William H. Looney, the popular drummer at the Academy of Music, was pleasantly surprised last evening when a number of his brother musicians and friends attended the theatre in a body. Just as Mr. Looney came upon the stage to announce the amateur program for the evening Mr. Frank Clark stepped up and presented him with a handsome gold Moose charm. Although taken completely by surprise "Bill" responded in a neat little speech and thanked the boys for their token of esteem.

END OF COAL STRIKE

In Great Britain is Believed to be at Hand

LONDON, March 28.—The end of the calamitous national coal strike which has so sorely affected many millions of the population of the United Kingdom during the past four weeks is believed to be at hand. No doubt appears to exist in the minds of many people that the majority of the million miners who left their work on March 1 are anxious to return to the pits and when the occasion offers will vote in favor of the proposal to resume.

Most of them, it is believed, would even return to the pits immediately but in each district there is a small section of determined extremists who oppose any action until the vote which has been called for on the question of work or continuance of the strike has been cast and counted.

It is those out and out fighters who are causing the trouble which necessitated the dispatch yesterday of troops to Chirk, in Wales, where work has been proceeding for some days in the Brynkinalle collieries and to Cannock in the Midlands, where efforts were made last night to prevent the men working. Other owners are opening their mines today and those men who wish to start work will receive full protection from the government.

In the great military camp at Aldershot, 10,000 soldiers are held in readiness to move at any moment to any point in the country and at other military posts similar arrangements have been made.

More urgent even than the necessity of protecting the mines is the heavy duty of relieving the terrible situation caused everywhere by the strike. Millions are living in a state of semi-starvation in many parts of the country. The settlement can come none too soon for the 2,000,000 besides the miners who have been thrown out of employment. At least a half do not belong to any trade organization and therefore receive no out-of-work benefit.

In southern Wales the distress is becoming more terrible each day. In thousands of homes there would be no fuel and no food but for the efforts of the relief committees which have been formed.

It will take some time after the mines have again been opened to get enough fuel to start once more all the factories that have been closed.

On the river Tyne, whose surface is usually covered with vessels coming in or going out, no fewer than 122 steamers are laid up.

The condition of things has brought about a serious split in the ranks of the labor party and has strained the relations between the miners and the other trade unionists. It was only in 1909 that the miners joined the labor party, they having always maintained their own representatives in parliament and there is now a likelihood that they will again separate.

At the last meeting of the labor party there were angry scenes and violent recriminations as to the attitude which should be taken by the party on the third reading of the government minimum wage bill.

The other trade unionists wanted to abstain from voting altogether but the miners insisted on opposing the measure and thus made the labor party vote against a bill which for the first time in the history of England embodied the principle of a minimum wage for workers.

This may embarrass the whole labor movement in this country, as the question of a minimum wage for workmen has been one of the chief planks of the labor party's platform. Several socialist members of the house of commons announced today that they will speak in various parts of the country during the week-end in favor of the government's minimum wage bill.

CHASING THE ALLENS

Big Force in Blue Ridge Mountains

RUGBYVILLE, Va., March 28.—"We will get them today," was the promise again this morning of the detectives on the trail of what is left of the Allen gang. Fifty-four men, making their way on foot through thickets or over rough trails, early today began closing in on the spot high up in the Blue Ridge in which Sidna and Friel Allen and Wesley Edwards are now supposed to have found their last hiding place. Across the North Carolina line at Mount Airy, Sheriff Haynes of Surrey county has a posse of 50 men awaiting word to join the Virginia searchers.

Judge Staples held court a few minutes this morning to enter a special order adjourning until April 3rd the special term of the Carroll county court. At that time dates for the trial of Victor Allen, Sidna Edwards and Byrd Marion will be set. Judge Staples will sit at Roanoke Saturday to hear argument on the motion for a change of venue in the case of Floyd Allen.

C. B. COBURN CO.

MADE A QUICK MOVE TO NEARBY STORE

C. B. Coburn Co. who was practically cleaned out of their retail business Wednesday morning by fire, certainly did a remarkable piece of work in relocating their business at 91 Market street, just three doors above their old stand, in the store vacated by the Donovan Harness Co.

Before noon two lines of telephones were installed and the shipping clerk, Mr. Flint, was taking orders and delivering goods from the storehouse on Howard street. The bookkeeping department was installed in office in rear of the store, counters were put in and this morning goods were being placed on shelves. A six draw cash register is now ready to receive the customers' money. The Lowell Gas Light company quickly installed their latest lights inside and a large arc light outside. A complete line of Harrison Bros. & Co.'s Town and Country and Old Colony Paint is on the way by express from factory and will be on sale Saturday. Varnishes and other lines are shipped and Monday will find them ready for the customers who will appreciate the hustle of Coburn Co. caus-ing so little delay. The fire completely destroyed all goods on the first and second story, very little of the goods remaining being salable. At this writing all goods in the wholesale line and most goods in retail are ready for delivery. The telephone numbers are the same, 1414 and 1415.

Lectured to Club on the Passion Play

Dr. Daniel A. O'Hearn, who is perhaps the only resident of Lowell who attended the performance of the Passion Play at Oberammagau entertained the members of the Washington club last evening with an illustrated lecture on the play and its people. While in Oberammagau Dr. O'Hearn became so deeply impressed with the play and its surroundings that he secured a large number of excellent views with which he illustrated his remarks on the lantern screen. The attendance was the largest of the season and the speaker held the rapt attention of all throughout. At his conclusion he was warmly thanked for providing so unusual and interesting an entertainment. Luncheon was served after the lecture.

MILL MEN MEET STRIKERS

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

Took Up Matter of New Sewers This Afternoon

Whether the glorious spring weather or the excitement attending the strike was responsible, city hall had a deserted appearance this afternoon when at 2 o'clock Mayor O'Donnell called the meeting of the municipal council to order. By actual count there were just six spectators present, two on the floor and four in the gallery. At no previous meeting this year has there been less than 50 or 75 present. The corridors, likewise, were deserted.

Alderman Barrett was absent at the opening of the meeting but made an appearance shortly afterward.

The notice of Michael McKeon, claiming damages to the amount of $93, for loss of pay and doctor's bills as the result of an accident, for which he holds the city responsible, was referred to the commissioner of public safety, in charge of the department of claims.

The petition of F. B. Kenney and others that Pine street be macadamized southwesterly to Stevens street was referred to the commissioner on streets and highways.

The certificate of incorporation of the Pawtucketville Athletic club was received and reported upon favorably by the mayor. It was then approved and ordered sent back to the secretary of the commonwealth.

Commissioner Cummings asked that his order designating polling places be held up temporarily as he had received notice of objection to the location of one of the booths. The matter accordingly was held back until Saturday morning.

The Mayor Objects

When the report of the street commissioner was read recommending a sewer in Dalton street, Mayor O'Donnell raised an objection to the acceptance of the report stating that while he was heartily in favor of the con-

QUESTION IS RAISED

As to Legality of Election of Registrar of Voters

The recent election of James H. Rooney as registrar of voters has brought forth a lot of comment as to the legality of the said election on the grounds that Mr. Rooney has not as yet declared himself as to his political party.

The fact is that Mr. Rooney cast his first vote last fall and he has had no opportunity to vote at a primary which means that he is not yet designated as a republican or a democrat.

Mayor O'Donnell when seen on that question this morning said all he knew about the party designation was that Mr. Rooney had told him he was a republican, and that his father is a registered republican. However, if the election proves to be illegal and if a registrar of voters is not chosen before April 1st, Mr. George C. Evans, the former registrar, will be a holdover.

CROWD IN FRONT OF I. W. W. HEADQUARTERS

Say That They Will Not Recognize the I. W. W.

The strike situation in this city remains about the same.

There was considerable excitement this forenoon but the strikers, as a whole, have been quite orderly.

There was a semi-parade early this morning and it went into Belvidere. The strikers were looking for A. G. Cumnock's house, but they passed the residence without disturbance. There was one arrest on the Rogers street bridge on the return trip.

There was nothing doing at the mill gates this morning or at the noon hour. Big crowds gathered there and the police had very little to do. The crowds were very orderly.

At a meeting held today reports of delegates appointed yesterday to submit the demands of the I. W. W. to the mill agents were received and accepted. The delegates reported that the mill officials said they would not treat with the I. W. W.. Other committees were sent to the mills this afternoon.

At a meeting of the Loomfixers' association held this forenoon it was announced that John Golden, president of the Textile Workers of America, would arrive in Lowell tomorrow morning.

More operatives went out on strike today from the mills of the Bigelow Carpet Company in Market street and windows were broken in those mills this morning by stones thrown from the street.

It was reported this forenoon that the I. W. W. had been requested to vacate its headquarters in the Mansur block, corner of Central and Market streets owing to protests from the other occupants.

The strikers voted at their meeting this morning not to parade this afternoon. A parade had been decided upon but it was given up.

The foreigner who assaulted a police officer in Davidson street last evening was fined $40 in police court today.

There was some excitement in Middle street this forenoon said to be due to a clash between delegates from the I. W. W. and members of the A. F. of L.

John Golden Coming

The Loomfixers' association held a meeting this forenoon at their headquarters in the Runels building and initiated 25 new members. Conditions having to do with the strike and lockout were discussed quite freely but no action was taken. It was stated that John Golden of the Textile Workers of America, would arrive here tomorrow forenoon and the loomfixers will take no action until they have consulted with Mr. Golden.

Not Poles

It was stated at the meeting at the I. W. W. hall today that the men arrested last evening were not Poles, but Lithuanians. The chairman also said that the committee would issue a warning to the man who they alleged is responsible for the trouble. The chairman stated that the disturber did so to weaken the ranks and that they would report him to the police in the event of further trouble.

The Boott Mills

The delegates reported that the only mill that refused to receive the delegates yesterday was the Boott.

Afternoon Meetings

This afternoon meetings of the nationalities included in the strike were held separately. The meeting of the English speaking people was held at 4 o'clock. The shoe workers are the latest to join the ranks and they met in the hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Wants to Carry Revolver

The trouble at cotton weavers' hall in Middle street this forenoon was more fully explained to the police by the recording secretary of the union, Mrs. Annie O'Del. Mrs. O'Del called at the police station this afternoon and asked permission to carry a revolver. In relating the story of what took place at the hall this forenoon Mrs. O'Del said that threats were made by one of the invaders. She said that strangers came in and sought to take possession of the platform. They said they were from the I. W. W. and were looking for new members. Mrs. O'Del said that one man threatened to do violence to certain of his countrymen unless they affiliate themselves with the strike and through the proper channel.

Supt. Welch told Mrs. O'Del to get three persons who heard the threats and bring them to the police station. "You bring the witnesses and we will do the rest," said the superintendent." The matter of carrying a revolver was dismissed for the time being and Mrs. O'Del went out to corral the three witnesses.

More Window Smashing

The mills of the Bigelow Carpet Co., were not the only ones in which windows were smashed today. Another mill attacked was the United States Bobbin company's plant in Belvidere where stones were hurled through several windows.

Greek Leader Talks

Dr. Demopulos, who is in charge of the Greek strikers, in the present struggle, decided today that in the event of the strike not being settled soon that he will communicate with the Greek papers in New York, and have them publish an article to the effect that his people here need the assistance of the Greeks. "We will only accept aid from our own people," he said: "There are a great many Greeks in this country and they are all good-hearted," he continued. "I will explain the situation and I know that we will have the cooperation of all. However, if the fund is started, the money collected will not be distributed to the strikers, but arrangements will be made with the Greek merchants to supply them with whatever is needed. This arrangement is not made to deprive them of anything but only to keep peace among us. To give any one too much money when idle, is not good policy and especially and in a time like this, when they are out around with others. It may cause trouble. This is what we want to avert. I do not want any people to harm a fly."

This afternoon the Greek strikers called at the office of their leader in the Associate building and registered. This will enable the leader to have a list of all in readiness at any time and be prepared for any situation that may arise.

Sign on the Door

When Michael Stamkin opened the the door to his home in Winter street this morning he found that a red cross had been painted on the outside of the door and thereby hangs a tale.

Adam Nasutoviez and Alex Kansinski were arrested last night by Sergt. Ryan and Officers O'Keefe and Sheridan on a warrant charging them with assault and battery on Michael Stamkin, the man on whose door the red cross was painted.

Stamkin is employed at the Waterhead mills in Lawrence street and refused to go out last Tuesday when others, including Nasutoviez and Kansinski, went out on strike. On Tuesday, at noon, Stamkin was knocked down, pummelled and kicked by three men and Nasutoviez and Kansinski, he alleges, were two of the men who assaulted him.

Nasutoviez and Kansinski were arraigned in police court this forenoon and their cases were continued to tomorrow morning. The two men are out on bail.

Stamkin told the police that he was well satisfied with his work and said he would remain at work as long as the mill remains open. "I have a wife and child," he said, "and I cannot afford to lose and I want to be protected at my work and in the street. I am not afraid of them, but I do not want to have any trouble if I can help it."

Strikers Were Misled

The strikers threw a little scare into Belvidere this morning and but for the presence of mind of a man accosted by the strikers there is no telling just what would have been the nature of the demonstration. It seems that the strikers started for the Waterhead mills in Lawrence street, but they did not reach there and made a somewhat circuitous route embracing a considerable portion of Belvidere.

The procession was quite a pretentious one and was led by a stranger whose name is unknown. It was well understood, however, that the procession was composed of strikers and they were looking for the residence of Treas. A. G. Cumnock of the Appleton mills. They were almost directly opposite Mr. Cumnock's house when they accosted a young man and asked where the house was. The young man was a quick thinker and, to avoid what he thought portended trouble, indulged in a fib and said: "Just over the hill, first street to the right," and away they went. So well did the little ruse work that Mr. Cumnock, speaking later of the conduct of the strikers, said: "They were very orderly and did not create any disturbance whatever, at least not in the vicinity of my house." Mr. Cumnock did not know that the strikers had inquired as to the location of his house.

The strikers also inquired for Frederick A. Flather's house. Mr. Flather is treasurer of the Boott mills and lives in Mansur street. They did not create any disturbance at Mr. Flather's house and it looked as if the strikers were just simply curious to know where the two treasurers lived.

They Carried Stones

But however peaceful may have been their motives some of them carried stones and dropped them upon the arrival of the police who had been telephoned for presumably by the young man who sent the strikers over the hill to look for Mr. Cumnock's house. The officers went out in the auto patrol and it might be said in passing that it is just such a time as this that proves the worth and necessity of an auto patrol for the police department.

The police came upon the strikers on the Rogers street bridge and it was then and there that the strikers dropped the stones from their pockets. One of their number, Jafer Ujsein,

The accident happened at Wilmington on the night of November 11 last, when Mrs. Kittredge, aged 76, was run down by an automobile in which Horsfall was driving from Cambridge to Lowell. Horsfall was indicted for manslaughter and the jury that tried the case in January failed to agree. The manslaughter complaint was placed on file and the defendant was tried on four counts, namely, recklessly operating an automobile, operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, going away without stopping after injuring Mrs. Kittredge, going away without stopping after damaging the property of Albert Zeep. He was found guilty on all charges except that alleging intoxication. It is understood that sentence will not be imposed before the June term of the court.

E. S. DESMARAIS

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS AT HIS HOME LAST NIGHT

Mr. Edelmard S. Desmarais, the well known plumber entertained the executive committee of l'Association des Anciens Eleves du College St. Joseph in a delightful manner at his home, 941 Lakeview avenue last night. The committee of which Mr. Desmarais is a member, in response to an invitation from the latter gathered at his home for the purpose of holding a business meeting.

This part of the program was soon disposed of, however, and a pleasant evening followed. President Wolfred P. Caisse, Jr., occupied the chair and the coming annual meeting and banquet was discussed from every point of view.

The matter of buttons, to be worn by the members came in for special consideration and, after accepting as the byword of the association, "Nous Nous Souvenons," proposed by the chaplain, Rev. Julien Raecttc, O. M. I., who had been appointed for that purpose, the meeting placed the matter on the table, pending arrangements for the making up of the buttons. It was also voted to hold a general meeting of all who have signified their intention of becoming members on Sunday afternoon, April 14, at the college hall. The next meeting of the executive committee will be held on April 18, at the home of E. J. Larochelle, 60 Beaulieu street.

Following the meeting a buffet lunch was served and after the meal cigars were passed and the young men gathered in the music room, where a delightful program of instrumental and vocal selections was rendered. Mr. Desmarais, who is possessed of as fine a bass voice as can be heard in this city was heard to advantage in several opera selections.

The evening closed with a vote of thanks from the members of the committee to their host for his cordial hospitality. Present at the meeting were Rev. Julien Raecttc, O. M. I., chaplain of the association, and Rev. Joseph Blais, O. M. I., a former pupil of the college, and Messrs. Charles Bourret and Auguste Jodoin.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of the Centralville Social club was held last night in the club rooms in Lakeview avenue and was largely attended. President Isidore Trudel occupied the chair and considerable business was transacted.

A committee was appointed to look after the organization of a checker contest that is to begin next week. The members of this committee are Hildege Ducharme, Edward Peloquin, O. Ducharme and Joseph Ellis. The contest will be to determine the champion checker player of the club and to him, whoever it is, will be given a medal. To the other winners, suitable prizes will be given. At next week's meeting will be given the prizes for the recent parchesi contest.

Citoyens-Americains Club

The Citoyens-Americains club held its regular meeting in the club rooms in Dutton street last night with President Maxime Lejdre in the chair. Three members were initiated and the committee in charge of the organization of the celebration to be held in connection with the 14th anniversary of the club reported progress.

Royal Arcanum

Regent Homer L. P. Turcotte presided over the regular meeting of Rochambeau council, R. A., which was held in C. M. A. C. hall last night. Routine business was transacted and several applications for membership were received.

ROOSEVELT RALLY

Continued

who said he was a Turk and lived in Gorham street, was seen to throw a stone. Officer Frank Fox caught him in the act and placed him under arrest. At the police station the stone thrower was booked for assault on an unknown person.

Trouble in Middle Street

"Big gang inise h—— in Middle street," said a little old man who blew into the police station waving a newspaper this forenoon. He thought, perhaps, that because he was so short of stature that it was necessary for him to wave the paper in order to be recognized. "Send police quick," he said, and away he went with a bunch of reporters and photographers at his heels and, sure enough, there was something doing in Middle street. The street was packed from Central street to the Cotton Weavers' hall and men and women were talking in divers tongues of something that happened up stairs. Just then the officers appeared on the scene and dispersed the crowd some of whom mumbled threatening words while others cheered.

No arrests were made and the crowd moved on in compliance with the order of the police. A fellow on the sidewalk told one of the officers that representatives of the I. W. W. had called at the hall for the purpose of addressing the crowd there and were refused admittance. They tried, he said, to rush in the door and were met by men with chairs and one of the visitors was pushed down the rather steep stairs leading to the hall.

Statement By the Mayor

Mayor O'Donnell when asked for a statement relative to the strike by a reporter of The Sun today said:

"I have not taken any official action on the strike and do not intend to until conditions warrant such action. At the present time the matter appears to be one between the mill authorities and the employes and as long as it does not interfere in any way with the rights of others there is no need for any action on my part. I have kept close watch on the conditions and incidents that have followed the closing of the mills. There is no apparent spirit of malice or lawlessness abroad. Crowds congregate in the streets and at the mill gates, a great majority of them drawn there simply through idle curiosity to see what is going to happen. The younger element is there in a spirit of mischief, perhaps. Occasionally there has been an outbreak such as that which occurred in Davidson street yesterday. In all such cases the police have acted promptly and effectively. I have instructed the police to meet the situation coolly and conservatively; to see that the law is obeyed but to guard against over-stepping their authority."

Report of Delegates

At today's meeting in the I. W. W. hall the delegates named yesterday to present the demands to the mill officials made their reports to the general strike committee. The meeting was presided over by William Trautman. He first called for the secretary's report of the last meeting. The report was read and accepted. Reports were then given by the representatives of the thirteen nationalities in the strike. Each reported progress and all said that their people would remain in the strike. It was announced that the Armenians and the Turks met and organized last night.

The reports of the committees that went to the mill officials yesterday were submitted. In most cases the speakers said that the mill men were willing to meet committees of strikers from their mills but that they would not do business with the I. W. W. One of the delegates reported that when he presented the demands to the agent of the Appleton mills, the latter cried, and said that he was sorry. The speaker then said, "He is not sorry for us but sorry because the money is not coming into his pocket." He was loudly applauded.

The other committee said that they were politely received and that they made arrangements to meet the officials again today. The reports were cheered and all were accepted by the general committee.

It was announced by several of the delegates that they want to secure separate halls to hold their meetings. The committee voted them the privilege to engage halls, but instructed them to make reports to headquarters.

It was decided that the number of members on the committees named yesterday be reduced from 5 to 3, and to be composed of only employes of the mills that they will visit. The time announced for the latter committees to meet was three o'clock. They met at headquarters and then went to the mills. Chairman Trautman instructed them to tell the mill officials that they were representatives of the strikers of the mill and that they did not come as delegates from the I. W. W.

The reports of the committees will be heard at the meeting of the general committee tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The Greeks Met

The Greek strikers, in answer to the ringing of the bell on the Greek church at 11.30 today went to the school hall and at 12 o'clock a large meeting was held. Earlier in the morning there was a bulletin posted in the drug store at the corner of Market and Suffolk streets to the effect that the meeting would be held at 12 o'clock. Dr. Damopoulos, the leader of the Greek strikers, first spoke of the circulars that he had printed and instructed his assistants to distribute them among the number. 1000 of these were printed and some were distributed last night. A translation of the pamphlet is as follows:

To the Greek Strikers:

I did not advise you to strike. You went on strike out of your own free will first, and then you came and asked my advice and leadership.

Since you are on strike and have appointed me your leader, I deem it my right and duty to give you a warning and advice that as long as you went on strike, you owe it to yourselves to stand loyal by it as long as it lasts and as long as the other nationalities are on strike, and only stop striking when all together stop.

If you don't stand loyal with the rest of your brothers, Americans, English, French, Belgians, Portuguese, Polanders, if you break the strike, all the others will think of us as dishonorable people.

I am telling you this because I noticed today that some fasoulides (comical fellows) commenced to sow thorns among you, so as to cause you to divide in opinion and thus break the strike and win for us the contempt of the other nationalities.

Those things were done once upon a time. Let us stop them now. Let us try to correct the injustice done to us by others and win the esteem and respect of all. Don't forget! Stand loyal with the strike as long as it lasts. Be peaceful and avoid, by all means, the least disturbance, and victory, respect and the estimation of the public will be ours.

(Signed)

George A. Demopoulos.

The doctor reported to his people the reports of the committees made at this morning's meeting of the strike committee. He said that the delegates reported that they were treated politely in all but one mill. He said that during the afternoon he will have the strikers of the different mills visit him at his office. Each mill will be given one hour. By this plan he expects to find how many are out in each mill. He will also make a list of the single and married people and find out the circumstances of each striker. He said to The Sun that the reason he was doing this was to prepare for what may come. He says that if the strike is prolonged he will solicit funds from other Greek communities and distribute the money according to the circumstances. He again repeated his instructions to the strikers to keep out of parades and other demonstrations.

He told them to be careful and not to take the advice of some of the men who are telling them to go back to the mills and to take part in the disturbances. At the conclusion of his remarks he asked if they still had confidence in him and if they would continue to obey his orders. They said they would and gave him three hearty cheers.

At the Carpet

It was reported that employes in several of the departments in the Bigelow Carpet came out today. Most of these, it is said, are sympathizers, who have members of their families on strike in other mills. This morning as a result of throwing stones several windows in the mill were broken. Two of the broken windows are on the side near the police station, one being on the second floor, in the counting room of the axminster department.

No Parade Today

There was no large street parade through the streets today, though during the morning hours some of the strikers met and marched through the streets cheering. The afternoon procession, however, did not materialize, and most of the strikers as well as the "lock outs" met either in the hall or on the corners, but their stay on the corners in the down town districts was rather brief, as the police were instructed not to allow them to congregate.

"Lockout" Talks

In conversation with an employe of the Waterhead mill, this morning, the writer asked him if he was on strike. He said: "Well, you may call it so, though I did not come out as a striker. I, as well as many others, went to the factory to go to work, but the strike picketers got there before us. When we saw that they were there at the entrance and that it would be impossible to get by them we turned around and have remained away from there since. I want to work and was perfectly satisfied with the pay I was getting, but I also think considerable of my life. I suppose we will have to remain away until the strike is over."

Boyd Not There

James Boyd, who has presided at most of the meetings of the strike committee was not at this morning's meeting. It was said that he and William Haywood left the city last night, but that both were expected to return today.

Asked to Vacate

Owing to the many complaints from tenants in the Mansur block where the strikers have their headquarters the representative of the Nesmith estate, which includes the Mansur block, has requested the strikers to vacate the hall.

WILLIAM D. HAYWOOD ADDRESSING STRIKERS ON SOUTH COMMON

Letter from Morrison I. Swift

The following letter from Mr. Morrison I. Swift is received and we gladly publish it as showing his view of the present industrial situation.

To the Editor of The Sun:

Two points in your editorial last night on the mill strike deserve comment. You state that "preparations to inaugurate the turbulent methods adopted in Lawrence" in part have caused the general shut-down of the cotton mills. This is a mistake. The strikers are averse to turbulence and so are the leaders. The Lawrence victory in the presence of the militia proved that success can be gained by simply waiting.

At the same time the attitude of the city authorities here is very different from that which the Lawrence authorities took. The strikers are not being treated as if they were a body of dangerous wild beasts, but as if they were rational men and women. If this policy is continued there will be a kindly feeling in the strikers toward the city, which is the best guarantee of peace.

You say, in closing your editorial, "There is a large number of people who did not strike (in Lowell) and who did not approve of the strike. They have to suffer the loss of work with the others, etc." Very much the same argument was used and made much of at Lawrence. The other side of this statement is that all these people who are tepid and do not want to help the strike, enjoy the benefits when the strike wins, and are very glad to accept them. None of these persons refuses the raise of wages that the more enthusiastic spirits gained for them. They thoroughly approve of getting higher pay, and if, instead of standing aloof, they would loyally cooperate with the rest, it would be much easier to secure this higher pay. The I. W. W. is a great boon to the workers. In that it seeks to amalgamate them all into one union so that the indifferent and timid workers will not hinder improvement of conditions.

The price of living has gone up; nearly every necessity of life has become dearer; how are these mill hands to subsist on the same level of life without a substantial advance of pay? If the mill owners should receive less in profits (which is doubtful, since they can raise the price of their product), would it mean anything except that they would have to dispense with a few luxuries which they do not need? All citizens should see the justice of their doing so in order that the operatives may be able to buy the absolutely necessary things of life.

Morrison I. Swift,

Lowell, March 27.

STRIKE INCIDENTS

Capt. "Jim" Brosnan of the police department, looking resplendent in his new uniform, stood at the corner of Moody and Suffolk streets yesterday morning about 6.50 o'clock when along came a procession of strikers in the wake of which were two foreigners, each decorated with the "Don't be, etc." sign and proceeding ayong under an evidently heavy accumulation of liquid enthusiasm. As they passed the genial captain one of them removed his cap and cried out in broken English, "Free cheer for Ireland."

Two children entered one of the primary schools yesterday wearing the badges of the strikers. The teacher saw them coming and meeting them at the door said: "Take off those badges. There's no strike here. Everybody is working at this school." The children removed the badges and the incident was closed.

Patrolmen Flanagan, Clark and Moore have been ordered to permanent duty at the corner of East Merrimack and Davidson streets until further orders. They took their stations this noon and all was quiet in that neighborhood.

"Dutchy" McDonald came down from his home in Merrimack, N. H., yesterday brimming over with excitement. "Gee," said Dutchy, "I guess this strike fever has gone through the country. When I went home last night I found that the kids in the village school, including my own, had gone on strike because they didn't like the new teacher."

HICHBORN A SUICIDE

Son of the Late Rear Admiral Shot Himself

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Philip S. Hichborn, a young lawyer and son of the late Rear-Admiral Hichborn, killed himself last night from despondency and humiliation over the elopement more than a year ago of his wife, Eleonore Hoyt Hichborn, with Horace L. Wylie, a prominent Washington attorney. He shot himself in the head with an automatic army revolver and died almost instantly.

Hichborn went to the home of his sister, Mrs. Paul S. Pearsall for dinner. The family was out and shortly after his arrival servants heard a shot in his room. The door was broken in and he was found dead. On a table he had left a sealed note.

A person who professed to have seen the note said part of its text was:

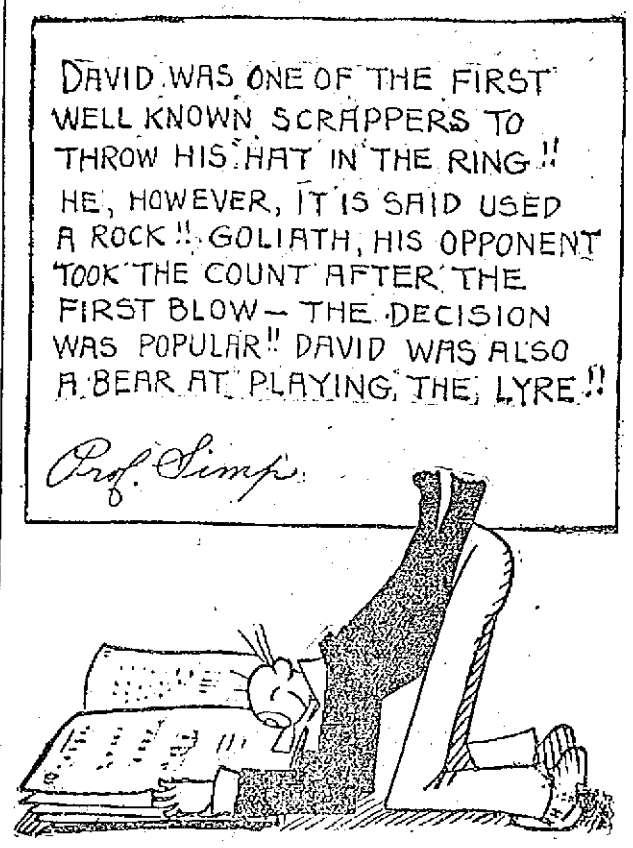

"I am not to blame for this. I think I have lost my mind."

The remainder, which was brief, was said to be devoted to mention of his little boy.

Suicide adds one more chapter to a domestic tragedy which shocked the most exclusive society in Washington and brought sorrow and shame to the homes of some of the capital's most prominent families.

The first hint that the public had that all was not well in the Hichborn family occurred in December, 1910, when Mrs. Hichborn and Wylie disappeared at the same time. They were reported traveling under the names of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wise on the Nile and in France. Later they returned and reconciliation in their respective families was attempted without success. Both again disappeared last November and are now thought to be in France. Wylie had a wife and four children and Mrs. Hichborn a three-year-old boy.

F. M. SIMPSON

ELECTED TO THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

AUGUSTA, Me., March 28.—F. M. Simpson of Bangor was selected to succeed the late Gov. John F. Hill as the Maine member of the national republican committee at a meeting of the republican state committee yesterday. Mr. Simpson was chairman of the state committee from 1901 to 1905, state treasurer 1895 to 1901 and state assessor 1901 to 1907.

MURDER PREVENTED

Would-be Slayer Was Knocked Down by Convict

BOSTON, March 28.—A convict became a life-saver at the Charlestown state prison yesterday, when he grappled with an infuriated inmate who had knocked an instructor of the clothing department to the floor insensible, and, with an ironing board poised high in the air, was about to deliver what he afterward boasted would have been "the finishing touch."

The attack came without warning. Bedlam reigned among the 70 convicts in the room when they heard the sound of blows, the cries of the assailed man, and saw the latter, who is Martin Leflovitch, one of the two instructors in the department, fall insensible to the floor.

Not satisfied with the result of his blows, the assailant raised his weapon high over his head.

Just as he was about to crash it down on the skull of the helpless instructor, a fellow convict made a flying leap, caught him by the arms, and the two rolled upon the floor.

An officer who was on duty in the room took a hand in the melee, and the board wielder was soon quieted.

Leflovitch, upon examination by Drs. Morris and MacLaughlin, was found to be suffering from severe wounds of the scalp and face.

A blow on the side of the face had driven his teeth through the cheek. There was also a gash on his arm, received in an attempt to ward off the attack.

He was taken to his home at 18 Allen street, West End, in an automobile, and last night his condition was said to be critical.

The man who made the attack is now in confinement under surveillance. He will be examined as to his sanity, as officers at the prison have noted strange actions on his part recently.

For several days Leflovitch experienced difficulty with the man, who received instructions as to his labor in a surly manner. His term of imprisonment would soon have expired, and this is one of the reasons that makes his act inexplicable to the prison authorities.

Warden Bridges stated last night that he could not make public at this time the names of the prisoner who made the attack and of the prisoner who saved the instructor.

A reward in the shape of a shortened sentence, if not a pardon itself, will probably be given the convict who came to the rescue. When questioned on this point, Warden Bridges stated that he was not in a position to express himself as to the recognition that might be given the brave convict.

WOMAN IN CHARGE

SUPPER AND ENTERTAINMENT AT HIGHLAND M. E. CHURCH

Charles Tilton of Medford, a former pastor of the church. The guests were also the speakers of the evening and made the evening a most memorable one with strong talks that held the attention of the audience. Miss Bertha Chapman at the piano and Paul Savage, violinist added to the attractiveness of the program. Rev. Arthur Bonner, Ph. D., acted as toastmaster and the men acting as waiters and hosts were Messrs. William Thomas, Walter I. Leach, William D. Large, Prescott Pirrington and Chas. Wotton. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley M. Wilder were the committee on advertising.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT

Lashed Opponents in a Stirring Speech

CHICAGO, March 28.—Col. Roosevelt's most stinging campaign speech thus far was delivered here last night. He lashed his opponents and charged some of them with using fraud and trickery to defeat him.

Col. Roosevelt said it was a fighting speech. It was delivered before a throng which packed the auditorium and cheered him enthusiastically. The primaries in New York yesterday furnished the text for his speech and he cited a number of instances in which he said his opponents resorted to wrong practices to defeat him. He expressed belief that in the great majority of districts of the country the people were with him and that the opposition was trying to defeat him by methods which he characterized as "infamous."

Part of Col. Roosevelt's speech was devoted to "big B's." He opposed "our present policy of chaos" and gave his own ideas of the methods which should be pursued to insure strict regulation of large corporations.

Chicago gave the former president a lively welcome. Crowds cheered him at the station when he arrived and whenever he appeared during the nine hours of his stay here.

The auditorium was large enough to hold only a part of those who sought admission. Though two other meetings were held many persons who wished to hear Col. Roosevelt were unable to do so.

STRUCK BY A CAR

Automobile Was Badly Damaged

An automobile owned and operated by William Murphy, the taxi-cab man, crashed into an outward bound electric car of the Bay State Street Railway Co., near the corner of John and Merrimack streets about 10.30 o'clock last night. Mr. Murphy and his companion, John McNally, were thrown out, Murphy falling in the glass from the front of the car and receiving several cuts on the right cheek, chin and forehead. He was slightly stunned when picked up and his face covered with blood, so he was taken into Riker-Jaynes' drug store and his injuries were attended to there. McNally escaped injury with the exception of a few slight bruises on his face and a bad shaking up.

The machine was a four cylinder Stevens-Duryea and was badly damaged about the radiator, front wheels and engine. It was towed to one of the local garages.

The motorman on the car was Philip O'Brien and Thomas Holden was the conductor.

Girls

Read About These Three Girls. How Sick They Were and How Their Health Was Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Appleton, Wis.—"I take pleasure in writing you an account of my sickness. I told a friend of mine how I felt and she said I had female trouble and advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she had taken it herself for the same trouble with wonderful results. I had been sickly for two years and overworked myself, and had such bad feelings every month that I could hardly walk for pain. I was very nervous and easily tired out and could not sleep nights. I had dizzy spells, and pimples came on my face. But I have taken your Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored my health. I think it is the best medicine in existence."—Miss Cecilia M. Bauer, 1161 Lawrence St., Appleton, Wis.

A SCHOOL TEACHER'S GRATITUDE:

Geneva, Iowa.—"I have been teaching school for some years and I have neglected my health because I was too busy with my work to attend to myself properly. I suffered greatly every month and was on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

"I wrote to you about my condition and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Purifier as you recommended. These remedies have done wonders for me and I can highly and widely recommend them to every suffering woman."—Miss Minnie Shaver, R. F. D. No. 1, Geneva, Iowa, c/o Sam Erickson.

A COLORADO GIRL'S CASE:

Montrose, Col.—"I was troubled very much with irregular periods. Sometimes two months would elapse. I suffered severe headache, was weak and nervous, could eat scarcely anything.

"I took both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and the result was wonderful. I feel like another person.

"I think your remedies are the best on earth and cannot express my thankfulness to you for what they have done to me. I help my neighbors when they are sick, and I shall always recommend your medicines."—Miss Ella McCandless, Montrose, Col.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that a medicine that did so much for these girls will benefit any other girl who is suffering with the same troubles?

Does it not seem the only sensible thing to give such a medicine at least a trial? You may be sure that it can do you no harm, and there are lots of proof that it will do you much good.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

All these testimonials are guaranteed genuine and truthful. The original of each came to us entirely unsolicited. They are sincere expressions of gratitude for actual benefits received from the medicine.

Clark of Greenfield, Mass.; Mrs. Florence G. Buck of Wethersfield, Dr. Eliot R. Clark, associate professor of Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, Md.; Leonard T. Clark, now in California, and Grace S. Clark, who died January 4, 1900. There are three grandchildren, Richard and Eleanor Buck and Webster K. Clark, Jr. For years she was president of the Hartford Motherhood club and the Hartford Mt. Holyoke Alumnae association. She organized the Women's Saturday Afternoon club in Wethersfield ten years ago and has been its president ever since. She was president of the Women's Foreign Missionary society, secretary of the Ladies' Aid society and an active member of the W. C. T. U.

FATALLY BURNED

CHILD SCALDED ABOUT FACE AND BODY

HAVERHILL, March 28.—Toddling across the kitchen floor Robert, the 18 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ovlio Cote of 30 High street, fell against his mother's dress yesterday afternoon, causing her to upset a pan of boiling water in his little upturned face and the child was so frightfully scalded about the face and body that it died two hours later.

The couple have one other child, a girl four years old.

THE BRITISH COAL STRIKE

Premier Asquith has failed to settle the coal strike. The minimum wage bill has, therefore, been carried and is now in force. The industrial paralysis all over England is the worst the country has ever experienced. The miners are beginning to return to work; and the points at issue have been reduced to almost nothing. Yet the miners delight at this display of power to cripple the industries of the country and refuse to go to work. The whole situation emphasizes the necessity of seizing the mines and having them run under government control. The crisis has united the two great political parties in the work of urging a settlement. In spite of the gravity of the crisis the government refused to allow any minimum wage to be specified in the bill as in England it has always been held as absurd to fix wages by law. Furthermore if such a thing were done in one case it would have to be done in another. Premier Asquith has made a strenuous effort to settle the strike, and nothing but asinine obstinacy resulted in the defeat of his good offices in that direction. The miners will find that hereafter their powers may be greatly restricted as the fate of the entire nation cannot be left in the hands of an organization so reckless of the public interests.

THE STRIKE OUTLOOK

With a few weeks of idleness thousands of the operatives will be destitute and then will come the sad feature of the situation. The operatives and their families will suffer if relief be not provided. The average family dependent upon the wages earned in the mills lives only from hand to mouth and seldom is provided for more than a week at a time. If the grocer refuses as needs he must to give credit during the strike, then the family without money will be in want. The grocer, like the market man, has to pay his own bills and cannot afford to give much credit, especially where the chances of payment are not the best. The strike will have many features common to all strikes; but it is gratifying to know that thus far those out of work have been quite orderly in their parades and their public demonstrations. It is to be hoped that this will continue and that there will be no excuse for any extra police much less for the militia. We do not want the reputation for disturbance established by Lawrence.

The demands of the strikers have been submitted to the agents, and a conference may bring about a mutual understanding.

NEEDLESS JUNKET PLANNED

The proposition to appropriate $35,000 to send eleven members of the legislature to Europe for the purpose of investigating industrial conditions, wages and hours of labor, is one that would serve no useful purpose, although it would give the members of the delegation a very delightful tour. Similar investigating bodies have secured information of this kind that proved of very little use. In 1910 a special commission appointed by the legislature investigated the cost of living and published the result of their labors and deductions in a large volume which very few people took the trouble to read. Moreover the general public did not accept its conclusions as genuine or reliable. This proposition to investigate the conditions, wages and hours of labor is one that if carried out would accomplish nothing beyond affording the delegation an opportunity to see how the toilers fare in the old world.

THE PACKERS SET FREE

"Not guilty" is the verdict in behalf of the ten Chicago packers. Nobody supposed there was any danger of a conviction. The whole prosecution was a bluff. The republican party is not likely to put the magnates of their own creation in jail. It has often been alleged that if the head officials of great trusts were tried under the criminal clause of the Sherman law they could be readily convicted. Whether the prosecuting attorneys were in earnest in this particular case is not certain; but the result of the trial will be urged as another proof of the inadequacy of the Sherman law and in advocacy of its repeal.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

The presidential primary in this state will be something new. The ballot on the democratic side will present the delegations favoring Foss and Wilson. Signatures have been secured for Champ Clark's delegation; but Mr. Clark has announced that he will make no contest in any state in which a local candidate is running. To get a delegation on the ballot for any candidate 1000 signatures are needed and of these there must be 250 from each of four different counties. This work alone requires the activity of a few politicians.

TAFT FAR IN THE LEAD

The evidence is now cumulative that Taft will bury Roosevelt in the contest for the nomination. New York and Indiana voted heavily in favor of Taft which has given the Colonel a severe shock. The Roosevelt men held a rump convention in Indiana and appointed a holling delegation which will be barred from the convention. Roosevelt is protesting that New York did not treat him fairly. New York simply smiles.

WILL ROOSEVELT EXPLAIN?

Col. Roosevelt has given his views upon the recall of judges and judicial decisions as upon what he vaguely calls the rule of the people; but he has not yet told the people of this country what changes he would make on the tariff, whether he would admit foodstuffs free and how he would prevent the trusts from robbing the people. Perhaps he will do all of this and much more in the speech-making tour on which he has just started.

Mayor Gaynor of New York is making so many public speeches that he seems to be desirous of attracting political attention that might make him a presidential possibility.

SEEN AND HEARD

When you are afflicted with that pestiferous indisposition of the mind known as the blues, it is not at all an unwise move to stroll into the nearest vaudeville house as a means of diversion. This you may desire because the girl you like has intimated that it would be advisable for you to go way back and sit down, or because the boss at the office, mill or store has informed you that there is nothing doing in regard to that raise, or because the fellow with whom you have chummed around has borrowed fifty and then, absent-mindedly, left town for New York. Whatever may be the cause, the depression is there and the question at hand arises: What am I going to do about it? Try a show. You enter and sit down with an expression on your face that would appear unusually doleful at a funeral. The orchestra begins to play. At first the effect of the music on your feelings is hardly perceptible; then some melody which may have been whistled by your grandfather when he was just learning to shave tickles a sympathetic chord in your heart and your face shortens one inch; then a popular waltz causes the blood to flow a little more rapidly and another inch is subtracted from the length of your countenance; then a favorite air of yours comes floating along and, presto, before you realize it you have for the time being forgotten about the girl, or the boss or the erstwhile chum and, after you have unconsciously begun humming the tune yourself, you settle back in your seat with the feeling that perhaps, yes perhaps your affairs are not as dark as they seem to be.

While in this receptive mood for amusement, a monologue artist whose principal outward attraction is a bright green vest, sauntering onto the stage with as debonair a manner as if he were certain that the audience would never let him leave it again, hands out a bunch of wrinkle openers that cause you first to smile, later to chuckle, afterward to laugh and finally to pound your palms together until blisters are imminent. Following the green-vested gentleman there comes tripping before the footlights a vivacious looking damsel who gets away with some cute and catchy songs about June nights and moon-lit paths and all that sort of stuff; in which you cannot take oath that you are altogether uninterested. After she has received her final round of applause from the gentlemen, married and single, sitting in "baldheads' row" and has also been the unknowing recipient of the criticisms of some of the feminine connoisseurs of dress among the audience, there appears for your entertainment a youth, attired in a soft shirt, corduroy trousers with a bandana handkerchief knotted about his neck, who giving a preliminary touch or two to his violin, begins his "turn" with the popular selection from Il Trovatore. The strains of this beautiful melody are soothing and they exercise a delightful influence over the emotional side of your disposition. As the last notes of Il Trovatore die away the violinist, striking up "Everybody's Doing It," carries you from the sublime to the ridiculous; yet in your case it is not an altogether unsatisfactory variation, for have you not come to the theatre that you might be diverted as well as entertained? Then, the violinist, making his bow amid long continued clapping, you are successively amused or interested by several other acts, each of which contributes its share in raising your spirits and when the curtain finally goes down you leave the playhouse feeling almost as light hearted as a schoolboy when the four o'clock bell strikes on a Friday afternoon.

Don't forget that your dog license is due April 1 and that you are subject to a fine of $15 if your dog is not licensed on or before that date.

"Private" John Allen of Mississippi was in his office one day, when a very seedy and exceedingly unwashed tramp came in and told him a tale of woe.

"I need a little money," said the hobo, "for I am in a bad fix. Not only am I hungry, but I am all broken up physically. I have dislocated my left shoulder."

"In that event," said Allen dryly, "you must have tried to put on a clean shirt."

"I have made it a rule through life," he said at the table the other day to a man at his left, "never to meddle with another man's business."

"That's right—perfectly right," was the reply.

"But I see you have a new confidential clerk."

"Yes, sir—yes."

"He's a hard-looking case; I have seen him intoxicated a dozen times, and I wouldn't trust him out of my sight with a sixpence. Took him out of charity, eh?"

"Well, not altogether, you know. He happens to be my eldest son."

There was a period of silence so painful that both wished some one would yell "Fire" to break it up.

THE HUMBLE TOILER

To work while yet the dawn is red
The humble toiler fares elate;
And daily earns his meed of bread,
And vexes not o'er questions great.

He knows no hidden Asteroid,
Or, if the Sun is burning out;
To him the far is not the Void,
And God he has not learned to doubt.

But he finds joy in simple things
And knows the peace of sweet, fair fields;
He drinks of sparkling, crystal springs,
And sees the beauty Nature yields.

He cares not if we sail the air,
Or bridge the Ocean vast and wide;
But he sees that the world is fair,
And Love is toiling by his side.

Our Lyric Choir he does not know;
For him old Homer sang in vain;
But he can feel the soft winds blow,
And hear the silver plash of rain.

And he can know a child's sweet love,
And find at home enjoyment sweet;
He sees the heavens smile above,
And hears the lark the morning greet.

A toiler with his spade and plow—
Yet happy as the rich can be;
He lives in the unfailing Now,
A soul content and glad and free!
—George L. Andrews, in The Christian Herald.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Lewiston Sun: It will be something if the British Government's failure to settle the coal strike is so complete that hereafter it keeps out of the strike-settling business. Better a good deal more of suffering from business paralysis than the establishment of an appeal of a labor dispute to the government. Let government just maintain order; let the employers and employes work out their own differences to their own compromises.

AS OTHERS SEE US

Springfield Union: It is of interest to note that the operatives of Lowell are largely composed of elements that did not figure in the Lawrence strike to any great extent. There are many Greeks and French-Canadians and some Poles and Portuguese in Lowell, but comparatively few Italians and Syrians.

Greeks are reported to be slow to accept the I. W. W. leadership. The Portuguese and Poles responded to the call of the strike organizers with considerable readiness, though much less formidable in numbers than some of the other nationalities. However, the strike has had the effect of tying up the Lowell situation and temporarily throwing all the operatives out of work.

Fortunately, no inclination to indulge in riots has yet been in evidence, but a favorable outcome of the deliberations will be urgently desired and if a protracted shutdown should ensue impatience will become acute. However, the probabilities strongly favor an early compromise that will set the looms running again with the usual quota of operatives.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Lawrence Telegram: The law now provides for capital punishment in all of the states of the Union except Michigan, Wisconsin, Rhode Island, Kansas and Maine. Iowa abolished it in 1872, but restored it in 1878. Colorado also abolished it, but later replaced it on the statute books.

The substitution of the electric chair for the gallows has had, no doubt, the effect of somewhat modifying the one-time opposition to the death penalty, but the agitation will continue. It is safe to say that it will continue, however, until society finds a more effective way of protecting itself against life-takers.

THE INSURANCE BUSINESS

Worcester Post: Whether the insurance business can be regarded as interstate commerce is a question not yet fully determined. But as organized and controlled nowadays, on a basis that includes some radical defects, it certainly contains enormous waste and very likely illegality and wholly unjustifiable discriminations as alleged in the resolution for investigation introduced in congress yesterday. It is by no means impossible that a comprehensive inquiry may be helpful toward better methods.

DRIVING HORSES

Brockton Times: Where are the splendid, sleek-coated, clean-limbed driving horses we used to see constantly on the streets of all our cities. It is only at irregular and infrequent intervals that we run across one now. Is it possible that the automobile has to a large extent replaced the noble roadster?

TRIUMPH FOR WISCONSIN.

Nashville Democrat: After forty years of non-recognition, a comparatively unknown composer named Parelli scored a great success before an immense audience in Paris Sunday. The first part of his "Tableaux Symphoniques" was rendered, being characterized by curious impressionist effects, the music portraying the excessive Egyptian heat, the slow, arduous toiling of slaves and the cries of vultures and ends with the triumphant return of Pharoah. The composer was compelled to appear on the stage and bow his acknowledgment of the applause, which continued for ten minutes. There is tragedy in the triumph when it is remembered what it would have meant to the artist and to the world of music, too, had it come years ago.

SEN. STEPHENSON

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Senator Stephenson of Wisconsin, octogenarian millionaire banker and lumber man, retains his seat. By a vote of 40 to 34 the senate declared his election valid and rejected the charge that $107,793 which the senator admitted spending in the Wisconsin primaries was used corruptly. Twenty-eight republicans and twelve democrats voted to hold Senator Stephenson's election was lawful. Eighteen democrats and sixteen republicans voted to declare it corruptly obtained. The ballots were cast as follows:

For Stephenson: Bradley, Brandegee, Briggs, Burnham, Burton, Clark of Wyoming, Crane, Curtis, Dillingham, Dupont, Gamble, Heyburn, Lippitt, Lodge, Lorimer, McCumber, McLean, Nixon, Oliver, Page, Penrose, Perkins, Richardson, Root, Smoot, Sutherland, Warren and Wetmore, republicans; Bankhead, Chilton, Fletcher, Foster, Johnston, Newlands, Overman, Pomerene, Rayner, Smith of Maryland, Watson and Thornton, democrats.

Against Stephenson: Borah, Bourne, Bristow, Brown, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Dixon, Gronna, Jones, Kenyon, La Follette, Poindexter, Smith of Michigan, Townsend and Works, republicans; Bryan, Chamberlain, Culberson, Gardner, Hitchcock, Johnson, Kern, Lea, Martine, Myers O'Gorman, Owen, Percy, Shively, Smith of Georgia, Smith of South Carolina, Stone and Williams, democrats.

The pairs were: Nelson with Bacon, Gallinger with Clarke of Arkansas, Guggenheim with Davis, Cullom with Simmons, Paynter with Gore, and Bailey with Reed, the first named in each case being favorable to Stephenson and the last named against him.

The senators unrecorded and unpaired were: Martin and Swanson, Virginia; Taylor of Tennessee; Tillman of South Carolina, and Mr. Stephenson, who, of course, refrained from voting.

For Senator Taylor, Mr. Lea explained that he was too ill to be consulted.

Senator Stephenson declared he felt a vindication was due to him.

"I never spent a dollar wrongfully in my life," said he. "In 66 years of active management of large institutions I have employed several thousand men—three generations of them and never had a strike. I never used a dollar for a fraud of any kind."

Senator Lorimer, whose vote for Senator Stephenson was greeted by an outburst of laughter in the senate galleries, is under similar charges.

The vote came at the end of a day's speech making by Senators Pomerene and Sutherland for Mr. Stephenson and Senators Cummins, Lea, O'Gorman and Poindexter against him. Mr. Poindexter said Senator Stephenson's alleged offense was greater than that charged against Senator Lorimer. Sen. Lea said that Sen. Stephenson's workers violated the rules of ordinary decency and propriety and went because there was nothing left to violate.

GOVERNOR DIX

Has No Power to Order New Election

ALBANY, N. Y., March 28.—Gov. Dix has no power to order another primary election in New York city as the question is one with which the legislature and the courts must deal. This was the substance of an opinion given to Gov. Dix last night by Attorney General Carmody.

William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the republican state committee in a statement last night contends that there is no legal standing to the suggestion that another primary be held.

The opinion of the attorney general was given the governor after the latter had received a telegram from Chas. H. Duell of New York, chairman of the Roosevelt committee, protesting against the conditions that existed at the primaries yesterday and suggesting that another primary be held "to abate the public sense of outrage and to solve an intolerable situation."

After a talk with Mr. Carmody, Senator Stillwell introduced a bill yesterday to give the courts the power to order a new primary. Objections by Majority Leader Wagner and Minority Leader Brackett to the advancement of the measure practically precludes any action being taken on the bill at this session of the legislature.

Mr. Barnes gave out the following statement:

"The failure of the printer to provide the official ballots for the primary on Tuesday in the city of New York at the hour of the opening of the polls, was most unfortunate because the defeated candidates now are endeavoring publicly to beclond the title of their successful opponents.

"Section 81 of the election law, however, governs distinctly the failure of a printer to produce ballots by providing for the use of official ballots so that ample opportunity was afforded the various candidates to supply the difficulty of the printer. This provision of the law absolutely establishes the election of those who received a plurality of the votes that were cast and there is no power in the legislature or in the courts of the state to take away from the candidate so elected, the rights which they secured at the primary.

"Suggestion that another primary be held, therefore, cannot possibly have any meaning because it can have no legal standing.

"It is not surprising that those who advocate lawlessness and disregard of constitutional rights in other matters should be unwilling to submit to the law in this case where the accident in the delay is furnishing the ballots unquestionably resulted in a less pronounced expression of the popular will of the enrolled republicans against them.

"Returns indicate that nearly 200,000 republicans in the state of New York voted at the primaries on Tuesday, although in most districts no opposition candidates were nominated."

PRESIDENT TAFT

ENDORSED BY N. H. REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE

CONCORD, N. H., March 28.—The administration of President Taft was "heartily, unqualifiedly approved," and his renomination favored in resolutions adopted at a meeting of the Republican state committee last night. The vote stood 87 to 27, the opposition being led by supporters of Gov. Robert P. Bass, who was one of the seven governors who urged Col. Roosevelt to enter the field.

The committee also adopted a resolve providing that candidates for delegates to the Chicago convention shall have their presidential preference stated on the ballot and in this way the desire of the voters be ascertained.

The date for the republican state convention was fixed by the committee as April 30.

STRIKE IS THREATENED

New Bedford Cotton Mill Operatives May be Ordered Out

NEW BEDFORD, March 28.—The possibility of a strike of thousands of cotton mill operatives in this city was faced by the New Bedford Manufacturers association which was scheduled to meet today to again consider the demand of the millworkers for an advance of 10 per cent. in wages. The members of the association assembled last Monday but deferred final action until a special committee which was appointed to investigate the wage matter had made its report today. The workers have refused to accept an increase of five per cent. granted by the manufacturers.

"A ten per cent. increase or a strike" is the ultimatum of the labor leaders.

It is admitted that the labor situation here is critical. During the past few days restlessness on the part of the operatives has been noticed. Some persons say that only the cold weather has kept the operatives in the mills. While a number of the manufacturers are said to favor giving an increase of seven per cent as a compromise, it is declared that the workers will remain firm in their demand. Secretary Duffy of the textile council has asserted that no compromise would be considered.

Approximately 30,000 persons are employed in the local mills.

OFFICERS BEATEN

Jail Sentences and Fines for the Accused Men

Patrolmen Michael J. Lennon and William H. Killoy had narrow escapes from being seriously injured in East Merrimack street about 5.30 o'clock last night while they were fighting against a crowd of riotous persons. The battle was a hot one for the time it lasted. The fracas attracted hundreds of people to the scene as well as police officers and the latter were the ones who prevented more serious trouble.

The patrolmen were passing through East Merrimack street in the vicinity of Davidson street when they saw a number of people obstructing the street. They ordered them to move on but they refused to do so. Then two were placed under arrest. The officers started for the patrol box but others who were in the crowd attacked the officers and the two men made their escape.

The battle proved to be a hot one and while Patrolmen Lennon and Killoy fought hard they did not draw a gun. Patrolman Killoy was struck over the head with a club which almost rendered him unconscious. Patrolman Lennon was knocked down and kicked and his face and body show bruises as a result of the trouble.

JAMES P. RAMSAY

Complimented by Jurors at Cambridge

Probation Officer James P. Ramsay, of the superior court, was the recipient of a neat compliment yesterday from Judge McLaughlin and the jurors now sitting in the criminal session at East Cambridge.

The members assembled about the popular probation officer and Judge McLaughlin in their behalf complimented him and the county on the efficiency and broad scope of the work done by him as probation officer. The jurors during the session had a good opportunity to observe the work done by the probation officer together with the great and satisfactory results and were so strongly impressed that they took occasion to make public expression of the fact. Officer Ramsay responded gracefully. The Lowell men on the criminal panel are Messrs. Martin H. Reidy, manager of The Lowell

The following letter was presented to Judge McLaughlin:

Middlesex County Criminal Court,
March Term, 1912.

To the Honorable John D. McLaughlin,
Justice of the Superior Court.

We, the undersigned jurors, having observed the manner in which cases are handled in this court in reference to the system of probation, wish to express our admiration of the efforts that are being made to reform those who come under its operation, not only the young but those of mature age, and of both sexes. We feel that many of these brought before the court are not of the criminal class, and under the watchful care of the probation officer, may be led to seek a better ideal of life, and become law abiding citizens.

Signed by all the jurors of the March term of Court, Middlesex Co., 1912.

REFUSED DEMAND FOR 15 PER CENT. INCREASE

LAWRENCE, March 28.—The officials of the Kimball Shoe Co. have refused the demand for a 15 per cent. increase in wages made by the 200 operatives whose strike earlier in the week resulted in the shutting down of the plant and the throwing out of employment of the 200 additional employes. This announcement was made today at a meeting of strikers. It was voted to continue the strike and to form an independent union of shoeworkers.

CLASSY PROGRAM

For Meeting of Lowell S. and A. Club

For tomorrow night's meeting of the Lowell Social and Athletic club there is a good program scheduled. The list includes four cracker-jack bouts. The first will be of six rounds and will be provided by Tommy Doyle of the Acre and Young Reynolds from Centralville. Both are very fast boys and are in great trim for the contest. The other three bouts will be 10 rounds each and in all well known men will appear. In the first of these Johnny Munlee and Kid Albenas, both from Boston, will be the principals. Both are very aggressive mixers and as they gave one clever exhibition here a short time ago their number tomorrow night ought to be a good one. Another hummer on the card will present Young Boyle of Lowell and Young Byers of Boston. Boyle has been training hard all week for the go and is in the pink of condition. He says that he never felt better and expects to put away the boy from the Hub. He is also well trained and confident of coming out on top. The final will show one of the best boys who ever appeared at the club, Tommy Flannigan. He is a heavy hitter and a scientific boxer. He is in good condition for the mill and expects to win. Flannigan will meet Kid Lee who hails from Chelsea, also very proficient in the art of self-defense. He has put a number of men away and comes here with a great record. He was to appear here at a previous meeting but owing to an accident was unable to do so. This time, though, he promises to be here and show the members that he has the goods. All the men are well matched and it should be one of the best shows of the season. The first bout will start promptly at 8.15 o'clock and Billy Gardner will act as decision maker.

STOCK MARKET

WAS STEADY AT THE CLOSE THIS AFTERNOON

Recoveries Of a Point Or Better In Several Stocks—In the Final Dealings the List Strengthened—Other Features of the Trading

NEW YORK, March 28.—Buying of stocks was resumed with considerable activity at the opening of today's market. One point gains were recorded by the Harrimans, St. Paul, U. P., and Great Northern Pac. Various other issues gained from half to three-quarters. The initial transactions in U. S. Steel, U. P. and Reading were on a moderately large scale.

Amal. Copper and American Smelting went to the lowest prices of the week in the early dealings but their declines were offset by the strength of Southern Pacific and Union Pacific, the former making a new record for the movement. The tone of the list was irregular and trading fell off abruptly before the end of the first hour. Heaviness in the coalers was accepted as a reflection of the increasing uncertainty over trade conditions. Westinghouse Elec. failed to respond to dividend resumption, declining 1¾.

The operations of the early session which became increasingly dull, suggested the transfer of speculative interest to the railways, a natural outcome of the recent dominance of the industrials, more particularly the metal and kindred issues. U. S. Steel continued to show bear pressure as a result of the corporation's bond issue but the Harrimans retained most of their early rise. The undertone of the list indicated more uncertainty and caution on the part of the professional element. Of the less active securities Consolidated Gas, General Electric and International Mercantile Marine pfd. were strong. On the curb a rise in Standard Oil of Kentucky to 900, an overnight advance of 350 points was a sensational feature.

Predictions respecting Harriman road earnings for February were borne out so far as they had to do with Union Pacific, which showed a net increase of $415,000, but in the case of S. P. the net gain was only $26,000, much of the gross increase having gone to operations.

Material losses were sustained in the afternoon by a number of stocks which have recently made somewhat sensational advances. Bear operators made concerted attacks on various influential stocks and as there was little evidence of the late accumulation by large speculative interests prices gave way readily. Declines of 1 to 2 points below yesterday's closing were effected in a large number of stocks and even U. P. surrendered all of its rise.

The market closed steady. Recoveries of a point or better from the low were recorded in the last hour by U. P., S. P., Reading, U. S. Steel, Amal. Copper, Am'n. Smelting and Erie. There was also a better tone to the local tractions. In the final dealing the list strengthened.

Boston Market

BOSTON, March 28.—The advance of Lake continued today in the local copper market and by noon 47 had been reached, the highest in the present movement. Lasalle also proved a strong factor during the forenoon, but other stocks were dull and lower.

MAX FREEMAN DEAD

Well Known Actor Committed Suicide

NEW YORK, March 28.—Max Freeman, an actor, 50 years old, committed suicide during the night by hanging himself in the room of a Seventh avenue hotel. He used a fire escape rope, the police report, to end his life.

BURNED TO DEATH

Entire Family Perished at Wilkesbarre

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 28.—Evan Millick, his wife, and their three children were burned to death early today when their home at Askam, near there, was destroyed. The entire family was asleep when the fire started. Millick was a Polish mine worker.

STRIKE AVOIDED

PHILADELPHIA, March 28.—A strike among the textile workers in the Kensington mill district of this city has been avoided by the action of the upholstery weavers union in accepting a compromise offered by the mill owners. The men asked for an increase in wages from 21 to 26 cents an hour, a reduction in working hours from 57 to 51 hours a week and other concessions. The employers conceded the wage demand but would not reduce the hours below 55 a week.

QUESTION IS RAISED

of a 12 inch pipe across the School street canal in order to supply the Highland district with more water pressure. Previous to the construction of the grade crossing a six inch pipe was in service, but the residents of the Highland district complained frequently about the poor water service, and consequently the 12 inch main will be installed. The latter will be connected with the new reservoir and will supply that particular district with all the water needed.

Pumping Station

Contractor Patrick O'Hearn has resumed work on the completion of the boulevard pumping station. Two of the four boilers are now being moved into the new building and when they are installed and connected with the pumps, and running in good shape, the other two will be removed. On account of the tearing down of the wall at the pumping station, Contractor O'Hearn will be obliged to erect a temporary partition in order to keep the dust away from the pumps.

The Coburn Fire.

Conversing about the recent fire at the C. B. Coburn Co. in Market street, Commissioner Barrett stated this morning that he will confer with the officials of the Boston & Maine or Locks & Canals Co., relative to the leaving of freight cars in the alley way between Middle and Market streets. Mr. Barrett said there is always a line of cars on the tracks in that alley way and that it is a menace to the entire city in case of fire. The commissioner then said it was very lucky there was no car on the tracks during the Coburn fire, for the firemen would have probably not been able to reach the flames by the rear of the building, where the bulk of the work was done. If possible he will have that alleyway clear of cars, especially during the night.

The Health Dept.

The board of health office is about the quietest place in city hall these days. There is practically nothing doing in that department, and those in charge are congratulating themselves over the little work which comes their way. Agent Bates stated this morning that for the past two weeks all they had to do was to take care of a dead cat and a dead goat, and as he said: "It is a case of nothing to do till tomorrow."

Hawthorne Street Sewer

Commissioner Brown and Engineer Farnham were this morning conferring on a petition for a sewer in Hawthorne street. The proposed sewer would be on the southerly side of the street, but the petition is objected to by three residents of the street, whose sewers are connected with dry wells in the middle of the street. They object to the passing of a sewer opposite their homes. The engineer and the commissioner are at a loss to know what to do, for it is a question as to whether it would be a cheaper proposition to put the sewer in now or wait to a later date.

Pierre A. Brousseau a resident of Essex street, Centralville, was a caller at Com. Brown's office, and as a committee of one, he conferred with the commissioner relative to the installing of crossings in Aiken avenue from Lakeview avenue to Cumberland road.

Want Street Crossings

Mr. Brousseau presented a petition signed by a large number of voters of that section, who complained of the unclean state of affairs in Aiken avenue. The trouble is that there is no crossing from Lakeview avenue to Cumberland road, and as the avenue is macadamized, it is unfit for pedestrians especially on rainy days. "There is mud up to the ankle," said Mr. Brousseau, "and the street especially during the spring and fall seasons is impracticable." The commissioner promised he would see to it right away and would see that proper crossings are set in at the intersection of the different streets.

A permit was granted to Clara Witham, 18 Troy street, for the erection of a one-apartment house on the southeasterly side of the street, the said building to be 24 by 30 feet, 8 rooms, pantry and bath, at an estimated cost of $2400.

Contracts Awarded

The following contracts were this morning awarded by the purchasing agent:

To F. S. Bean, a carload of flour at $5.20 per bbl. for the Chelmsford Street hospital; to Wilder and Wotton, a carload of oats at 64 cents per bushel, for the street department, this being the highest price paid for oats for a number of years according to the street commissioner, the last lot having cost 58 cents per bushel; to G. C. Prince, 300 gross of pens for the school department; to James J. Brown, a contract for drugs to the amount of $35.45; to Falls & Burkinshaw, a contract for drugs to the amount of $39.75, the said drugs being for the Chelmsford Street hospital; to Boutwell Bros., five dozen shovels at $7 per dozen.

struction of the sewer he believed that the report was erroneous inasmuch as it did not contain an estimate of the cost signed by the city engineer. Commissioner Cummings agreed with him that the estimate should accompany the report. The street commissioner stated that the report had been made out by the engineers but that he would have the omission rectified if desired.

Mr. Brown stated that all estimates were made by a competent engineer, even though the report was not signed by the engineer.

Mayor O'Donnell said if there are errors in the construction of a sewer or of street works, the council is charged and rightly, with the error. If errors there be I would prefer that it should fall upon the shoulders of qualified engineers. It is a parallel case of referring legal questions to the solicitor.

Relative to a sewer in Dalton street for which a petition was received, Engineer Farnham was called and said the approximate cost would be about $590 for laying in a 10 inch pipe for a distance of 190 feet.

Commissioner Brown recommended that the sewer be constructed at a cost of $590. Mr. Barrett moved that recommendation be accepted and that the construction of the sewer be authorized, and the motion was adopted.

A petition of Lowell Electric Light Corp. and N. E. Telephone & Telegraph Co., that the L. E. L. Co. be granted permission to attach wires on pole at 129 Salem street, was voted to be referred to commissioner of streets and highways and public buildings.

Another petition by the N. E. T. & T. Co. that the L. E. L. Corp. be granted permission to attach wires to a pole at 1552 Carlisle street, was referred to the commissioner of streets and highways and public buildings.

Permission was granted to the Lowell Electric Light Corp. to attach wires on poles of the New England Tel & Tel. Co. in Sixth street.

Alderman Barrett expressed himself as being opposed to granting permission jointly to corporations.

Commissioner Brown recommended favorable action on the petition of A. Estelle Runlett for a sewer in Hawthorne street at a cost of $350. The report of the city engineer shows that the probable abutting assessments would be $150. The report was accepted and the construction of the sewer was authorized.

Another Sewer Petition

Relative to a petition by Burton H. Wiggin for a sewer in Damon street, Commissioner Barrett said he was opposed to building sewers for people who are purchasing land and erecting buildings thereon for the purpose of exploiting. The sewer in question would be 250 feet long, at an approximate cost of $950, the abutting assessment to be $150. Damon street is not as yet accepted.

It was voted that the municipal council take a view of the proposed location of the Damon street sewer, the date to be set by them, and the order was left on the table.

The order of borrowing $50,000 for construction of sewers was then taken up and on motion of Commissioner Barrett it was accepted.

"By adopting this order," said Ald. Barrett, "$67,000 is being given the commissioner of streets and highways for sewer construction. He also said the said commissioner has had more money for streets and highways this year than the street department had in 1911, including the balance left over from last year.

Ald. Brown said that the money left over was for permanent improvements.

Alderman Barrett said again in response to Alderman Brown that permanent improvement mean labor, and that is being taken out of the department money, and that there is more money in that department than in any other previous year. "I am not in favor of building sewers on streets for land boomers who are looking for their own pocket, and scheming all the time. I will oppose all petitions for sewers and streets by these men, said the alderman.

Mayor O'Donnell said he was glad the question of money was brought as a proof to the public that the municipal council is not opposed to the laboring men as it has been said in the past relative to the appropriation for the street and sewer department.

The question of the engineer's report was again brought up by Alderman Brown when he asked if the council would accept a report signed by Engineer Farnham, or Engineer Kearney, or signed by himself.

Alderman Barrett said Engineer Kearney was the city engineer elected by the council and that he is to be responsible for that department, or then let the position be abolished.

A motion by Ald. Brown that an opinion be asked from the city solicitor on the authority of the municipal council over the police department, was adopted.

When putting up the motion the mayor said Ald. Brown was being made the mouthpiece of every disappointed politician in this city and that he is led by them in bringing such things as has been brought before the municipal council.

BRONZE TABLET

Wildenberg spoke on "The Blessed Sacrament" and explained why all should approach the sacraments freely. There was congregational singing and recitation of the beads. Benediction of the blessed sacrament was given by Rev. Fr. Fox, O. M. I. Fr. Wildenberg blessed religious articles and after the service confessions were heard.

REV. DR. ATWELL DEAD

NEWTON, March 28.—Rev. Dr. Benjamin Warren Atwell, an Episcopal clergyman, died suddenly at his home in this city today. Rev. Dr. Atwell was about 70 years of age and for several years had been relieved of parochial work, although he occasionally officiated for other ministers. He was well known in Vermont, to which diocese he was attached at the time of his death. His degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon him by the university of Vermont.

JOHN E. PARSONS

Testified at Sugar Co. Case Today

NEW YORK, March 28.—The aged John E. Parsons, former chief counsel for the American Sugar Refining Co., resumed the witness stand today for cross examination by District Attorney Wise at the resumption of the government's case against him and other directors of the company charged with violating the criminal clause of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Mr. Wise began his questioning along the line of competition, asking the witness what he knew of the purchase of other refineries by the American company. The term "strike," which it is alleged Adolph Segal gave to a sale of a refinery to the American Sugar Refining Co. at a profit was discussed at length. Mr. Parsons characterized a refinery like Segal's as one which set up cut-throat competition.

"What is 'cut throat' competition?" demanded Mr. Wise.

"'Cut throat' competition is illustrated here in the case of a man who floats three millions of stocks and five millions of bonds in a million dollar investment, which is worthless because he did not have the way to operate it," responded Mr. Parsons.

STAKING HIS CLAIM

THE COAL CONSUMERS

Are Well Supplied According to the Operators

NEW YORK, March 28.—On the eve of a suspension of work in the anthracite coal region because of the inability of the operators and the miners to come to an agreement on the wage scale and certain working conditions wholesale coal dealers and shippers say today the coal panic among consumers has practically subsided. The eager buyers of coal have laid in their supplies and the demand for anthracite in this market has fallen off.

The carry strike talk caused an unusual demand but the wholesalers say that this has been satisfied. It is officially stated that reports of a dissention among the members of the anthracite operators' committee as to the policy to be pursued toward the mine-workers are unfounded. Operators here decline to discuss the situation. There has been an unusual rush to charter vessels to carry soft coal abroad because of the situation in England but whether this demand can be satisfied in the event of a suspension in the bituminous region could not be learned today.

RETREAT FOR MEN

Opened at Sacred Heart Last Evening

The retreat for the men at the Sacred Heart church opened last evening with a very large attendance. The exercises were begun by congregational singing. The men showed their earnestness and fervor by the manner in which they rendered the hymns. The rosary was recited by Very Rev. Fr. Smith, O. M. I. The preacher of the retreat, Rev. Patrick J. Phelan, O. M. I., taking as his text the words of the prophet Jeremiah, "With desolation is the whole land made desolate because there is no man who considereth in his heart," delivered a very powerful and impressive sermon on the supreme importance of eternal salvation. After exposing the inconsistency of men today in their profession of faith and in their practice of it he dwelt upon the necessity and importance of the work of salvation. Pointing out the vanity of the things of this life the preacher considered the immortality of the human soul, the price paid for its redemption by Christ on the Cross and the inevitableness of death and judgment. All these facts were well set forth by striking examples. He concluded by exhorting the men to consider well the great and fundamental truths of their holy faith and to so live up to its teachings that when death comes and judgment is at hand they will have achieved the sole purpose of life—their soul's salvation.

Services were concluded by benediction of the most blessed sacrament given by Rev. Fr. Fletcher, O. M. I.

The exercises of the retreat will continue on Thursday and Friday evenings at 7.30 o'clock and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings at 5 and 8 o'clock. The retreat will close on Sunday evening at 6.30 o'clock when the papal benediction will be imparted to the men by Rev. Fr. Phelan.

Physicians Agree On Internal Baths

The most enlightened physicians, including many of the greatest specialists, are recommending and prescribing the use of the J. B. L. Cascade, Nature's own cure for constipation.

It keeps the lower intestine sweet and clean and eliminates all poisons in the waste which it contains.

Otherwise these poisons are distributed throughout the body; this weakens the whole system, makes us dull and lifeless, and even brings on serious complaints.

The J. B. L. Cascade clears the colon of all waste, and is shown by the Riker-Jaynes' Drug Store in Lowell.

BICYCLISTS IN DISPUTE

Over whether the chainless or anti-chainless bicycle is the best may settle it as they see fit, but they never argue about the superior merits of the Pierce Racycle or Iver Johnson, or any other wheel carried in stock by us. Easy running, graceful and stylish, light and strong, they can't be excelled. And this is the place where good repair work is done.

DREAM CAME TRUE

MAN THOUGHT HE WAS ARRESTED AND HE WAS

BOSTON, March 28.—The average person laughs off a distasteful dream when he wakes up, but Joseph A. Ward of 137 Lenox street, a negro window washer, did not. In a dream Tuesday night he saw minions of the law closing in on him and, behold, his dream came true yesterday, when he was arrested, after a chase of almost half a mile in the South End. Later "Joe" was arraigned before Judge Sullivan in the municipal court on a charge of forging and uttering two checks and was held for the grand jury in $2000.

According to the arresting officers, "Joe," in the course of his half-mile run bowled over a man named John Trumbridge and a milk man who attempted to capture him.

The chase started at 437 Columbus avenue and continued through Pembroke street, where "Joe" took to alleyways and byways until he came out to Tremont street with the officers and a large crowd of men and boys in close pursuit. Mr. Trumbridge happened to be eating dinner in a restaurant and left his meal to stop "Joe." The latter bowled over everybody and everything that tried to intervene until the milkman got a hold on his coattails and brought him to the ground.

Inspectors Cronin and O'Neil of headquarters and Inspector Newton of the William J. Burns National Detective Agency, brought "Joe" to police headquarters.

It is alleged that Ward secured $220 on the two checks, but the police say he obtained $150 additional by means of other false checks and that these charges will be preferred later.

JOHN MUIR

RETURNS FROM A TWELVE MONTHS EXPEDITION

NEW YORK, March 28.—John Muir, the naturalists, who has just passed his 74th birthday, was back in New York today after a 12 months expedition which would have taxed the energies of most men of forty years his junior. He started out in April, 1911, in search of a araucaria tree which he had seen before only in figurative captivity in the botanical garden of civilization but which he thought might be found native in some of the Amazon forests. The tree is a survival from an early geological period and is regarded by botanists as one of the most interesting in existence.

Y. M. C. I. BOWLING NOTES

Jon Mullin of the Orients tied Andy Doyle of the Washingtons for high single last week with 121.

The weekly tickets for the Alhambra were captured by Capt. Kane and "Postmaster" Jack Hammersley of the Orients, "Hippie" Hurrs of the Cubs and Capt. Jake McCann of the Oxfords.

Jim Carlin, "The Link of Hibernian hall" will receive a season pass for the Lakeview theatre this coming year.

In the Oxford-Washington game Tuesday night the Oxfords were beaten by one pin in the third string. Looking over the Washington score sheet they found a mistake of two pins giving them the string. The Washington's also looked over the Oxford score sheet and found an error of two pins. The Oxfords "played baby" and protested the game.

It was thought the Oxfords had first place cinched but "Rab" Whelan's outfit is going some.

The Orients and the Cavaliers meet tonight and great rivalry is shown.

The new song "If Everybody's Doing It" seems to affect the bowlers somewhat, judging from the number of fives and sixes that are being chalked up.

The banquet will be pulled off on April 16 and Pres. John H. Cole announces that a large (in quality) string of speakers is promised.

BILLERICA

A recount of the votes cast for selectmen and school committee for the two year term in the town of Billerica was held yesterday by the board of registrars.

Selectmen Sheridan and Wright were present, Selectman Sanford was represented by James Ritchie and Mr. Singhi was represented by Lawyer Melvin G. Rogers of Lowell. Messrs.

BOY MURDERED

His Body Was Found in the Woods

PROVIDENCE, March 28.—With throat cut, head battered and bearing other marks of violence, the body of William Mothers, a boy of 12, who disappeared after school on the afternoon of February 29, was found in the woods last night.

The spot where it was found was but 500 yards from the schoolhouse. The boy was the son of a mill worker residing in North Providence.

MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS

BOSTON, March 28.—The Mass. society of Mayflower Descendants held its 16th annual meeting in this city today. Reports of the various committees were submitted and other business transacted, including the election of officers for the ensuing year.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

At the Opera house this afternoon and evening and every day for the remainder of the week the attraction will be the wonderful Pathe motion pictures of the Passion play, presenting in beautifully colored and life like motion pictures, scenes and incidents in the life of Christ. The Pathe company is acknowledged to be the world's best makers of colored motion pictures and its representation of this sacred drama is said to be the last word in the art of motion photography. Over five hundred people take part in the representation which is presented in a reverential and impressive manner. The pictorial story begins with the appearance to Mary, of The Angel Gabriel, who tells her that she is to become the mother of the Son of God. Mary and Joseph are seen returning to their native village. The Inn is so crowded with travellers that Mary is obliged to take shelter in the stall with the oxen. Next are seen the shepherds watching their flocks by night, a bright star appears and also the angel of God, saying: "Behold unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord." Then follows in sequence the birth and familiar scenes in the life of Christ. Some of the impressive scenes are that of Jesus entering Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, Christ before Pilate, the scourging and crowning with thorns, the journey to Calvary, and the resurrection and the ascension. So clearly and vividly is the enactment of this sacred drama presented that a lasting realization of the story of the crucifixion is given the auditor, and one that can never be effaced. The Passion Play will be given every afternoon and evening during the remainder of the week. Prices for the afternoon will be ten cents to all parts of the house, evenings ten and twenty cents reserved.

"THE COUNTRY BOY."

After over a three months' successful engagement in Boston, "The Country Boy," a finely acted comedy of city life, comes to the Opera House for one day. The play is said to be brimful of crisp and delightful dialogue and laughter creating incidents and will be seen here with the same excellent cast and elaborate production as given in Boston. In the company are George A. Wright, H. Dudley Hawley, Joseph Kaufman, Mrs. Charles G. Craigg, Ethel C. Clayton, Carolyn Elberts and all the other favorites of this excellent company.

SPRING BOOKINGS

Among the spring bookings at the Opera House are those of "The Spring Maid," Billie Burke, Montgomery and Stone, "The Littlest Rebel," "Excuse Me" and "The Confession."

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

The bill at Keith's this week is exceptionally attractive and is bound to please the most fastidious for it has a number of choice bits. Two of the acts constitute two plays in themselves, one a pretty romance and the other a nonsensical and decidedly funny musical comedy. The first referred to is W. S. Gilbert's beautiful love story in two scenes entitled "Sweethearts" and presented in admirable manner by Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Connolly, two exceptionally clever character actors from across the water. The scream of the bill is "The Models of Jardin de Paris" in which droll Percy Pollock and his elongated and equally droll companion, H. J. Kennedy, are much in evidence assisted by dainty little Miss Thelma Anglin and four charming little singing and dancing girls. Pollock and Kennedy are two uproariously funny performers, and you laugh from curtain to curtain. Harry Lavine and Sofie Bennett, two kids, are pleasing singers, Master Lavine has a most captivating voice. Speaking of voices Miss Leighton of Braddock and Leighton possesses a charming voice and the audience would like to hear her in more solos. They sing and exchange new repartee. Franklyn Ardell and Ann Walter present a humorous satire on the Votes for Women craze known as "The Suffragel." Joyce and Donnelly, "Red Hair and Blue Eyes," sing, dance and talk. The DeMarcos present a novel act on the suspended rings, while Sadie Fendeller demonstrates her claim to the title "Queen of the Wire." Then there are the pictures.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Our Stock company presenting Adele S. Burleson's clever playlet, "Hello! Then the Deluge," is scoring a big hit this week. Miss Constance Jackson is seen in the character of a telephone operator who falls victim to the wiles of a wealthy mine owner. She promises to follow his bidding for a runaway wedding but when the time comes for their departure she hears of the breaking of the dam, threatening the lives of the whole township, and realizing her duty to her own people, remains at her post of duty. In the meantime the mine owner's true identity is disclosed, and he makes a hurried exit to lands unknown. The closing scene sees the girl and her former lover united. Henry Dearing, a new member of the company is seen in the part of a young miner, and he creates a favorable impression by his work. West LaFay, a Lowell boy, is adequate as the mine owner. Kendal Weston does not appear in the cast, but he has personal supervision of the production. Presentations are given each afternoon and evening.

William Nickerson, a singer, dancer and entertainer, is one of the added features for the week, and Golden and Hughes, black-faced comedians are good entertainers. Gorgalor Brothers, world's greatest sharpshooters, perform many wonderful feats with the rifle. The presence of the American flags and the national colors gives a pleasing touch to the act. The photo-plays for the last three days of the week will provide one of the most enjoyable features of the presentation. They are the kind that instruct as well as entertain. The views of present-day events, provided exclusively for this theatre, are added attractions. On Friday night the Merrimack Square theatre concert orchestra will feature selections from the opera "Lucia Di Lammermoor." Patrons of the theatre wishing to have their favorite seats reserved for them from week to week are asked to have their names placed on the subscription list. It costs no more. Box office telephone 2053.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The Hatfield Stock company in a new sketch entitled "Ma, Look at Me," is in preparation to put over some big laughs the next three days. This is one of their screaming comedies, which will probably, like their other comedies, brings roars of laughter throughout. Clifton and Carson with up-to-date songs and dances, interspersed with plenty of comedy, have been reported upon from New York as being exceedingly clever. Flying Waldo, an aerial contortionist, will furnish the thrills while Katherine Jennings, a local singer, will be heard in illustrated songs. Four good pictures will make up the balance of the show.

BATTLESHIP FLORIDA IS THE FASTEST DREADNOUGHT EVER BUILT

ROCKLAND, Me., March 28.—The battleship Florida, a ship constructed for the government navy yard at Brooklyn, was put through her paces over the measured mile course for standardization purposes. The highest speed she made, 22.64 knots, is not only the fastest ever attained by an American dreadnought, but is a record for her class throughout the world. The tryout was of particular interest because the Utah, built on the same lines by private builders, reached a speed of 21.637 knots, and they were much pleased that the Florida, built by the government, had exceeded that rate. The ship made twenty-two runs over the course, and the high wind and heavy seas had little or no effect upon her speed. She burned coal entirely under her boilers, as the oil fuel tanks are not yet in place.

ARREST CHAUFFEUR

He is Charged With Reckless Driving

BOSTON, March 28.—An automobile tearing up Hanover street, the operator apparently heedless of pedestrians, the police say, created no end of excitement about 10 o'clock last night.

The auto, which is owned by Hugh McBreen, vice president of the Jersey City baseball team, was operated by David Steward, 23, a licensed chauffeur claiming to live at 28 Common street. He was arrested on the charge of recklessly operating the auto. Mr. McBreen was at his home during the trouble.

Incidents leading up to Steward's arrest came fast. Patrolman Fox of the City Hall station saw a crowd of enraged persons shouting and jeering at the occupants of the machine as it sped along at a 40-mile clip.

Somebody in the crowd shouted that the machine had knocked down and run over a man. Fox shouted to the chauffeur to stop. Instead, the officer said that the speed seemed to have been increased. Fox threatened to puncture the tires of the machine with bullets, as he claimed that the lives of a score or more of persons were placed in jeopardy.

The auto was finally boarded by Officer Fox, who was chasing it, followed by a large crowd. The officer managed to grab the door of the tonneau and then make a landing.

LARCENY CHARGE

WOMAN FROM WHOM WILLIAMS TOOK MONEY IS DEAD

BOSTON, March 28.—Fred Williams, 43 years old, claiming New York as his home, for whom Detective Sergeant Irwin of the East Dedham street police station had been searching since July 17, 1910, when Williams left this city, was in the dock in the police court yesterday.

Sergeant Irwin met Williams Tuesday night and told him he had a warrant for his arrest, charging him with the larceny of $55 from Grace Rogers, of 32 Milford street.

"You can't do anything to me now, the Rogers woman is dead," declared Williams.

He was arrested, however, and Sergeant Irwin investigated and found that Grace Rogers had committed suicide by the use of a gas tube on the morning of January 29, last.

Judge Sullivan heard the facts in the case, and Williams told the story of how the dead woman had given him $55 to take to Roxbury and pay the rent for her house and that while he was on the car bound for Roxbury, he lost the money. He said then he went away. Judge Sullivan did not like the story, and sent Williams to the house of correction for one month.

SWINDLE CHARGED

FRED B. COOLEY ARRESTED BY BOSTON POLICE

BOSTON, March 28.—Fred B. Cooley, aged 40, who, it is alleged, has been obtaining fees of from 50 cents to $1 from poor families in the South End for examining their children's throats, was arrested by Patrolman Lane of Division 5 and arraigned yesterday before Judge Sullivan in the municipal court, charged with two counts of larceny and with illegally practising medicine. He was held in $500 for a hearing tomorrow.

Cooley was arrested by Inspectors Patterson and Norton six years ago for obtaining money under false pretences, and in 1905 by Capt. McGarr and Inspector Morrissey for swindling lawyers. His latest arrest came about through complaints made by one of his victims to Capt. Driscoll of the East Dedham street station.

According to the police, Cooley would visit a house and upon learning that the father was away would tell the housewife that he was from the board of health and insist on examining the children's throats.

OFFICERS BEATEN

During the fight word was sent to the police station and Supt. Welch ordered a detail of police in the automobile to go to the scene.

Patrolman David Petrie was one of the first officers to arrive and when he saw one of the men with an upraised hand over Patrolman Lennon he grabbed him. The man had a stone in his hand and was about to strike Patrolman Lennon. The man was ordered to desist but he refused to do so and Patrolman Petrie drew his club and then placed the man under arrest.

The other officers encountered some resistance at first but it was not many minutes before perfect quiet was restored and four of the men on their way to police headquarters. The men booked were: John Perkins, drunkenness and assault on an officer; Joseph Stupik, interfering with an officer; Mike Boniva, drunkenness; Leon Trojimowics, assault on an officer. The latter secured bail later in the day.

On their arrival at the station, Patrolmen Killoy and Lennon's clothing were covered with mud and dirt. Officer Killoy's head showed a swelling, caused by a blow from a club, while his face was scratched slightly. Officer Lennon suffered a few slight scratches.

Jail Sentence

Leon Trojimowicz entered a plea of not guilty to assaulting an officer but the court found him guilty and sentenced him to twenty days in jail.

It was the same Davidson street affair or rather it occurred in a place that is commonly called "Cat alley" leading off Davidson street. Patrolman David Petrie testified that he saw the defendant pick up a large piece of stone and was about to throw it when he screamed and pulled his revolver.

The defendant denied his guilt but admitted that the officer had pulled the revolver on him.

Still Another Assault

Andrew Kneloski was charged with assault and battery on an unknown person. The defendant was in the vicinity of the Tremont & Suffolk mills yesterday, according to the testimony of Patrolman O'Keeffe, and threw a snowball which struck a girl. He was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $5.

Assault on an Officer

John Pickens was charged with assaulting a police officer while in the performance of his duty. A plea of not guilty was entered by the defendant but after the testimony had been heard and the evidence considered by the court, the man was found guilty and he was sentenced to one month in jail.

The assault took place in the vicinity of the corner of East Merrimack and Davidson streets and Patrolman William H. Reagan was the man assaulted.

Patrolman David Petrie testified that he arrested the defendant about six o'clock last night. He said he saw the defendant throw a brick which struck Patrolman Reagan in the back.

Patrolman Reagan said that he was struck in the back but did not know who threw the missile.

Patrolman John Dennett testified to seeing the defendant with a brick in his hand.

The defendant admitted that he had thrown a stone but that it did not strike any person. The man was sentenced to one month in jail.

Obstructing the Sidewalk

Michael Andrulion was charged with drunkenness and obstructing a public thoroughfare, known as East Merrimack street. It is alleged that the defendant was in the mob which was raising trouble in the Belvidere section.

Patrolman Francis Moore testified that the man was in front of the Prescott mill and refused to move when ordered to do so. His testimony was corroborated by Patrolmen Considine, Sheridan and Lennon.

The man was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $5 for obstructing the street. The case of drunkenness being placed on file.

Jos. Stupik was brought into court this morning and arraigned on a complaint charging him with assault and battery on Patrolman William H. Killoy. He entered a plea of not guilty but after the witnesses had been heard he was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $40. The fine was paid.

Patrolman Killoy testified that he was struck by snowballs and other missiles while placing a man under arrest and subsequently the defendant struck him from behind.

Patrolman Lennon said that he was struck in the back of the head.

The defendant said he simply followed the crowd and did not interfere at all. The court, however, did not believe that the defendant was telling the truth and on considering the case found him guilty and imposed a fine of $10.

Violating City Ordinance

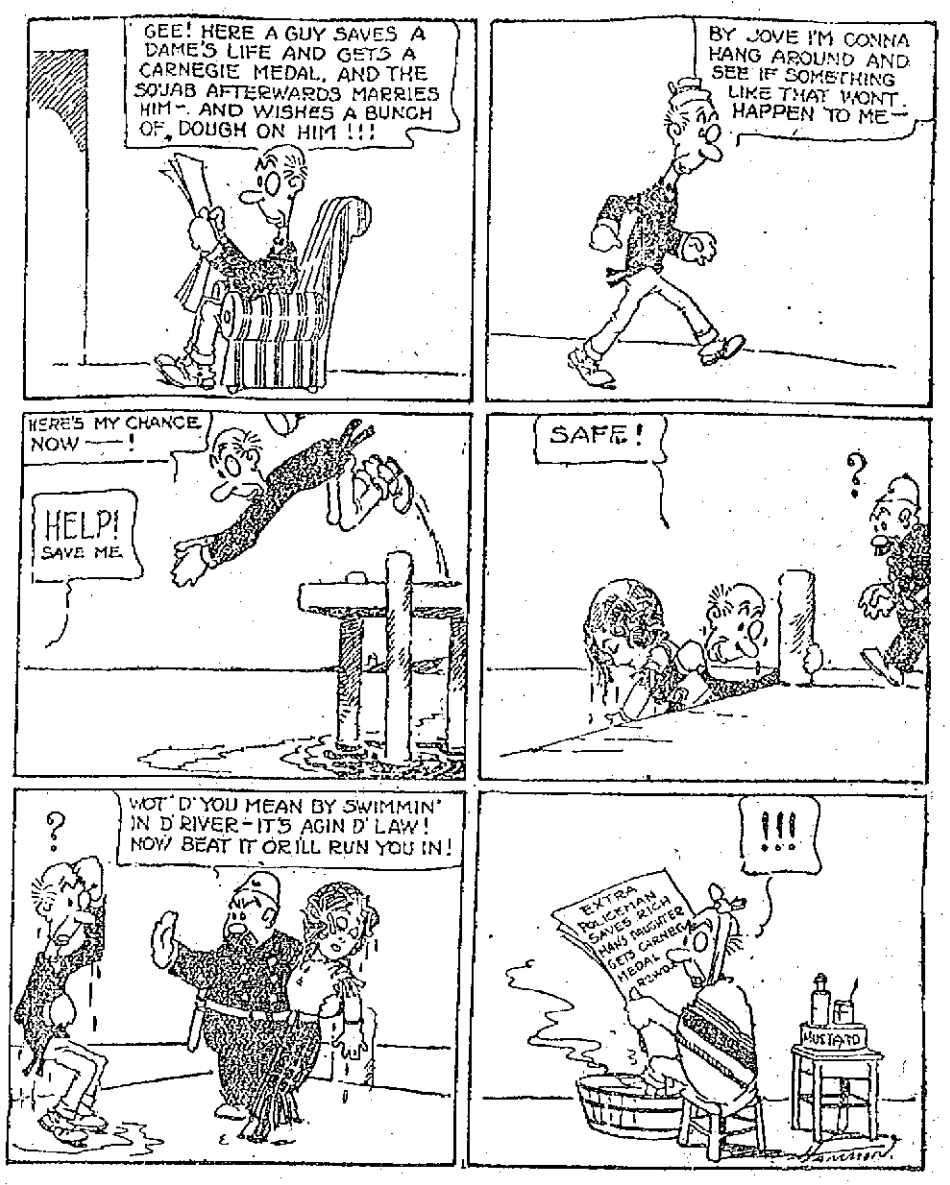

Simon Bue was charged with standing in Central street in violation of a city ordinance. Capt. Atkinson testified that the defendant was standing in front of the Mansur block in Central street. The former told the defendant to move on but the latter refused to do so. The witness said: "This man upon being ordered to move on said: "This is my place. Hurrah!" Patrolman David Petrie corroborated the testimony of the captain. He was fined $5.

An Alleged Striker

Jafer Hjesho, an alleged striker, was charged with assault and battery on an unknown person but by agreement the case was continued until tomorrow.

Mr. William H. Looney, the popular drummer at the Academy of Music, was pleasantly surprised last evening when a number of his brother musicians and friends attended the theatre in a body. Just as Mr. Looney came upon the stage to announce the amateur program for the evening Mr. Frank Clark stepped up and presented him with a handsome gold Moose charm. Although taken completely by surprise "Bill" responded in a neat little speech and thanked the boys for their token of esteem.

END OF COAL STRIKE

In Great Britain is Believed to be at Hand

LONDON, March 28.—The end of the calamitous national coal strike which has so sorely affected many millions of the population of the United Kingdom during the past four weeks is believed to be at hand. No doubt appears to exist in the minds of many people that the majority of the million miners who left their work on March 1 are anxious to return to the pits and when the occasion offers will vote in favor of the proposal to resume.

Most of them, it is believed, would even return to the pits immediately but in each district there is a small section of determined extremists who oppose any action until the vote which has been called for on the question of work or continuance of the strike has been cast and counted.

It is these out and out fighters who are causing the trouble which necessitated the dispatch yesterday of troops to Chirk, in Wales, where work has been proceeding for some days in the Brynkinalle collieries and to Cannock in the Midlands, where efforts were made last night to prevent the men working. Other owners are opening their mines today and those men who wish to start work will receive full protection from the government.

In the great military camp at Aldershot, 10,000 soldiers are held in readiness to move at any moment to any point in the country and at other military posts similar arrangements have been made.

More urgent even than the necessity of protecting the mines is the heavy duty of relieving the terrible situation caused everywhere by the strike. Millions are living in a state of semi-starvation in many parts of the country. The settlement can come none too soon for the 2,000,000 besides the miners who have been thrown out of employment. At least a half do not belong to any trade organization and therefore receive no out-of-work benefit.

In southern Wales the distress is becoming more terrible each day. In thousands of homes there would be no fuel and no food but for the efforts of the relief committees which have been formed.

It will take some time after the mines have again been opened to get enough fuel to start once more all the factories that have been closed.

On the river Tyne, whose surface is usually covered with vessels coming in or going out, no fewer than 123 steamers are laid up.

The condition of things has brought about a serious split in the ranks of the labor party and has strained the relations between the miners and the other trade unionists. It was only in 1909 that the miners joined the labor party, they having always maintained their own representatives in parliament and there is now a likelihood that they will again separate.

At the last meeting of the labor party there were angry scenes and violent recriminations as to the attitude which should be taken by the party on the third reading of the government minimum wage bill.

The other trade unionists wanted to abstain from voting altogether but the miners insisted on opposing the measure and thus made the labor party vote against a bill which for the first time in the history of England embodied the principle of a minimum wage for workers.

This may embarrass the whole labor movement in this country, as the question of a minimum wage for workmen has been one of the chief planks of the labor party's platform. Several socialist members of the house of commons announced today that they will speak in various parts of the country during the week-end in favor of the government's minimum wage bill.

CHASING THE ALLENS

Big Force in Blue Ridge Mountains

HILLSVILLE, Va., March 28.—"We will get them today," was the promise again this morning of the detectives on the trail of what is left of the Allen gang. Fifty-four men, making their way on foot through thickets or over rough trails, early today began closing in on the spot high up in the Blue Ridge in which Sidna and Friel Allen and Wesley Edwards are now supposed to have found their last hiding place. Across the North Carolina line at Mount Airy, Sheriff Haynes of Surrey county has a posse of 50 men awaiting word to join the Virginia searchers.

Judge Staples held court a few minutes this morning to enter a special order, adjourning until April 3rd the special term of the Carroll county court. At that time dates for the trial of Victor Allen, Sidna Edwards and Byrd Marion will be set. Judge Staples will sit at Roanoke Saturday to hear argument on the motion for a change of venue in the case of Floyd Allen.

C. B. COBURN CO.

MADE A QUICK MOVE TO NEARBY STORE

C. B. Coburn Co. who was practically cleaned out of their retail business Wednesday morning by fire, certainly did a remarkable piece of work in relocating their business at 91 Market street, just three doors above their old stand, in the store vacated by the Donovan Harness Co.

Before noon two lines of telephones were installed and the shipping clerk, Mr. Flint, was taking orders and delivering goods from the storehouse on Howard street. The bookkeeping department was installed in office in rear of the store, counters were put in and this morning goods were being placed on shelves. A six draw cash register is now ready to receive the customers' money. The Lowell Gas Light company quickly installed their latest lights inside and a large arc light outside. A complete line of Harrison Bros. & Co.'s Town and Country and Old Colony Paint is on the way by express from factory and will be on sale Saturday. Varnishes and other lines are shipped and Monday will find them ready for the customers who will appreciate the hustle of Coburn Co. causing so little delay. The fire completely destroyed all goods on the first and second story, very little of the goods remaining being salable. At this writing all goods in the wholesale line and most goods in retail are ready for delivery. The telephone numbers are the same, 1414 and 1415.

DR. D. A. O'HEARN

Lectured to Club on the Passion Play

Dr. Daniel A. O'Hearn, who is perhaps the only resident of Lowell who attended the performance of the Passion Play at Oberammagau entertained the members of the Washington club last evening with an illustrated lecture on the play and its people. While in Oberammagau Dr. O'Hearn became so deeply impressed with the play and its surroundings that he secured a large number of excellent views with which he illustrated his remarks on the lantern screen. The attendance was the largest of the season and the speaker held the rapt attention of all throughout. At his conclusion he was warmly thanked for providing so unusual and interesting an entertainment. Luncheon was served after the lecture.
